Inpixon Recognized as a Visionary in 2020 Gartner Magic Quadrant for Indoor Location Services, Global

Gartner: "Market for Indoor Location Services Continues to Expand to Additional Vertical Markets"

PALO ALTO, Calif. and TORONTO, Jan. 21, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Inpixon (Nasdaq: INPX), a leading indoor data company that specializes in delivering indoor intelligence, today announced that the Company has been recognized by Gartner, an independent research firm, in the Gartner Magic Quadrant for Indoor Location Services Global¹ report for the second consecutive year. In the recently published 2020 report, Gartner names Inpixon as a Visionary in the indoor location services space based upon Inpixon's ability to execute and completeness of vision.

Nadir Ali, CEO at Inpixon, commented, "We believe that Gartner's identification of Inpixon as a Visionary is a recognition of the value of our overall strategy to provide a comprehensive indoor location data platform. As the report indicates, 'Clients have noted the need to provide a single framework that integrates multiple technologies to solve multiple location issues.' We think our customers in both the government and commercial sector appreciate our comprehensive suite of solutions which enables them to introduce indoor intelligence to their business for various purposes, from wayfinding and customer experience, to business analytics and asset tracking, to safety and security."

This news comes on the heels of Inpixon's recent "IoT Sensor Product of the Year" award and last quarter's "Security Excellence Award." Inpixon's comprehensive offering includes an advanced indoor mapping platform and sensors that can locate Wi-Fi, Bluetooth, cellular, active RFID and Ultra-Wideband to develop a complete and accurate picture of a customer's building occupants and devices while preserving individuals' privacy. Additionally, Inpixon's artificial intelligence-powered analytics deliver critical insights to derive productivity gains and make informed business decisions.

Vendor inclusion in the Gartner Magic Quadrant is based on a wide range of criteria including the organization's completeness of vision, which consists of market understanding, market strategy, sales strategy, offering (product) strategy, business model, vertical/industry strategy, innovation, and geographic strategy.
