Inpixon Recognized as a Visionary in 2021 Gartner Magic Quadrant for Indoor Location Services, Global

For Third Consecutive Year, Inpixon Acknowledged in Magic Quadrant for Completeness of Vision and Ability to Execute

PALO ALTO, Calif., March 1, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Inpixon (Nasdaq: INPX), the Indoor Intelligence™ company, today announced that the company has been recognized by Gartner, an independent research firm, in their 2021 Magic Quadrant for Indoor Location Services, Global [1] report for the third consecutive year. In the report, Gartner names Inpixon as a Visionary in the indoor location services market based upon Inpixon's ability to execute and completeness of vision.

"We are extremely pleased to be named in the Gartner report for the third consecutive year and to be recognized as a Visionary for the second consecutive year," commented, Nadir Ali, CEO of Inpixon. "We believe this continued recognition reflects our ongoing efforts to establish the market's most comprehensive and scalable indoor location technologies platform."

The report states, "It has become clear this year that users are looking for more-complete solutions — perhaps even more than ever, due to COVID-19. Return-to-work initiatives are not just to help with social distancing and contact tracing, but should be integrated with space utilization, room booking and facility cleaning on demand."

Soumya Das, COO of Inpixon noted, "We believe our experience concerning the market's requirements is in line with Gartner's findings. As the pandemic progressed, it became increasingly evident that organizations need tools and solutions to make indoor spaces smarter, safer, and more secure, while also being able to address complex and changing indoor data needs. We're proud to offer our comprehensive Indoor Intelligence platform which can help companies leverage positioning, dynamic maps, and analytics to enable a wide variety of digital workplace transformation use cases including space utilization, desk booking, targeted cleaning, and employee engagement solutions."

Vendor inclusion in the Gartner Magic Quadrant is based upon a wide range of criteria including the organization's completeness of vision -- which consists of market understanding, market strategy, sales strategy, offering (product) strategy, business model, vertical/industry strategy, and innovation -- as well as the company's ability to execute, which considers product/service, overall viability, sales execution/pricing, market responsiveness/record, marketing execution, customer experience and operations.
