Intellinetics, Inc. Becomes Certified Provider For Ohio Provider Resource Association

Certification Provides Members with Access to Best-Practice Document Management Solution

COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 29, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Intellinetics, Inc., (OTCQB: INLX) a cloud-based document content services provider, announced today a new partnership with Ohio Provider Resource Association (OPRA). This partnership further strengthens Intellinetics' commitment to provide cloud-based document management solutions to the Human Services industry.

Intellinetics has been approved as an OPRA Vendor Partner. This program, known as OPRA's Vendor Partner Program (VPP), provides OPRA members proven, best-practice solutions for strategic needs. VPP status is reserved for proven market leaders who go through a rigorous vetting process prior to presenting to OPRA's board for final approval. VPP gives OPRA members exclusive access to special pricing and services while saving time, money and resources by connecting members to proven solutions and services.

Intellinetics has been helping Ohio-based Providers and County Boards for over 10 years and now supports a network that serves over 60,000 individuals. The Intellinetics' IntelliCloud™ platform has a library of out-of-the-box solutions that includes modules to support:

- Individual Documents
- Employee Documents
- Incident / Major Unusual Incident Management
- Billing / Finance
- Governance / Administrative
- Transportation

Providers generate and receive documents from many sources which creates challenges that interfere with service levels as well as increase costs and create security and compliance risks. With IntelliCloud, Providers enjoy an easy-to-deploy solution that integrates with existing platforms to:

- Improve service delivery
- Decrease costs
- Improved compliance
- Increase revenue protection
- Enhance security
- Document audit-readiness

All of which gives the providers more time to serve those that depend on them.

“We are filling an underserved need within the Human Services industry,” said James F. DeSocio, President & CEO of Intellinetics. “Our company was founded on filling the document management needs of this industry and we understand better than anyone the challenges they face. Our platform is designed to meet those needs and can be quickly launched and easily learned. We are pleased that our solution is helping those that have traditionally been overlooked when it comes to technology solutions.”

“We are pleased to have approved Intellinetics as an OPRA vendor partner,” said Anita Allen, Vice President. “We know that our members need and will benefit from the solutions Intellinetics offers. Even in the early stages of this partnership, we are seeing an overwhelming interest from our members. They clearly see the value of being able to easily manage their documentation paperwork so they have more time to focus on providing service for those in their care.”
