Hannon Armstrong Named to Real Leaders Top Impact Companies List of 2021

ANNAPOLIS, Md.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Hannon Armstrong Sustainable Infrastructure Capital, Inc. ("Hannon Armstrong") (NYSE: HASI), a leading investor in climate solutions, today announced that it has been named to the Real Leaders® Top Impact Companies List for 2021, in recognition of its pioneering approach and commitment to climate-positive investing.

Real Leaders, the world's first sustainable business and leadership magazine, honors the top companies from around the world that exemplify a new vision of capitalism — one that recognizes that doing good and adhering to sustainable business practices is also good for profits and growth.

"Our reason to exist is to make better risk-adjusted returns investing in climate solutions. Sustainable investing for impact is the business and our team is driven by this mission," said Jeffrey W. Eckel, Hannon Armstrong chairman and chief executive officer. "We're proud to be named among this group of exemplary companies that share our commitment to doing well by making a climate-positive impact."

"Hannon Armstrong and the other game-changing impact brands on our list prove that businesses can thrive by being a force for good," said Mark Van Ness, founder of Real Leaders. "They are real leaders of the new economy," added Van Ness.

Overall, Hannon Armstrong ranked #21 in the 2021 list of 150 companies, which includes leading sustainable brands such as Tesla, Beyond Meat, Patagonia, and 146 other well-respected impact brands across various sizes and industries. The full 2021 Real Leaders Top Impact Companies list is available at www.real-leaders.com/impact-awards-2021/. A special ceremony to honor the winners will be held on January 27, 2021.
