GEE Group Announces Untimely Death of President George A. Bajalia

JACKSONVILLE, FL / ACCESSWIRE / November 25, 2019 / GEE Group Inc.(NYSE American:JOB) the "Company" or "GEE Group"), a provider of professional staffing services and solutions, today issued the following statement: "It is with great sadness and deep regret that we announce that George A. Bajalia, President and a member of the Company's Board of Directors, passed away unexpectedly this past weekend. The entire GEE Group family mourns this loss of a valued member of its senior leadership team. On behalf of our Board of Directors, management team and employees, we extend our deepest sympathies to George's wife and children, numerous relatives and many friends. George was doing one of the things he loved most, golfing with good friends, when he had a fatal heart attack. This unexpected and sudden loss of a man we held dear to all of us is a tragedy for his family as well as a plethora of friends and business associates. The entire GEE Group community lost a great friend and distinguished businessman, and we will miss his keen insight, intellect and leadership."

Derek E. Dewan, Chairman and CEO, issued the following statement: "No words can adequately express my deep despair at the loss of a stellar business executive and my longtime friend, George Bajalia. The loss is felt by all of us in the GEE Group Community. We will miss our colleague and we will never forget the great person that George Bajalia was and his many contributions to GEE Group. George's responsibilities and duties at the Company will be assumed by Alex Stuckey, CAO, Kim Thorpe, CFO and me."

Forward-Looking Statements

In addition to historical information, this press release contains statements relating to the Company's future results (including certain projections, pro forma financial information, and business trends) that are "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Act of 1934, as amended, (the "Exchange Act"), and are subject to the "safe harbor" created by those sections. The statements made in this press release that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements that are predictive in nature and depend upon or refer to future events. Such forward-looking statements often contain, or are prefaced by, words such as "will," "may," "plans," "expects," "anticipates," "projects," "predicts," "pro forma," "estimates," "aims," "believes," "hopes," "potential," "intends," "suggests," "appears," "seeks," or variations of such words or similar words and expressions. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance, are based on certain assumptions, and are subject to various known risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond the Company's control, and cannot be predicted or quantified and, consequently, as a result of a number of factors, the Company's actual results could differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Certain factors that might cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include, without limitation: (i) the loss, default or bankruptcy of one or more customers; (ii) changes in general, regional, national or international economic conditions; (iii) an act of war or terrorism or cyber security breach that disrupts business; (iv) changes in the law and regulations; (v) the effect of liabilities and other claims asserted against the Company including the failure to repay indebtedness or comply with lender covenants; (vi) changes in the size and nature of the Company's competition; (vii) the loss of one or more key executives; (viii) increased credit risk from customers; (ix) the Company's failure to grow internally or by acquisition or the failure to successfully integrate acquisitions; (x) the Company's failure to improve operating margins and realize cost efficiencies and economies of scale; (xi) the Company's failure to attract, hire and retain quality recruiters, account managers and salesmen; (xii) the Company's failure to recruit qualified candidates to place at customers for contract or full-time hire; and such other factors as set forth under the heading "Forward-Looking Statements" in the Company's annual reports on Form 10-K, its quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and in the Company's other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). More detailed information about the Company and the risk factors that may affect the realization of forward-looking statements is set forth in the Company's filings with the SEC. Investors and security holders are urged to read these documents free of charge on the SEC's web site at <http://www.sec.gov>. The Company is under no obligation to (and expressly disclaims any such obligation to) and does not intend to publicly update, revise or alter its forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
