Mark Fenton, D.C., Director of Chiropractic Operations, Harkins Chiropractic of So. California

Dr. Fenton attended Palmer College of Chiropractic—West, where he graduated with honors in 1991. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in Human Anatomy and Physiology from California State University, Sacramento. After obtaining his chiropractic license in January of 1992, Dr. Fenton joined a large private practice with two other chiropractors in the San Fernando Valley, focused primarily on sports medicine and rehabilitation.

Dr. Fenton has lived in Southern California for more than 20 years. Prior to joining The Joint, he had a private practice in Studio City where his patient base came primarily from the entertainment industry. He spent most of his time treating the cast and crew of many popular television shows.

"The human body has never ceased to amaze me. I am in awe of its form and function. We are as fragile as we are resilient," said Dr. Fenton. "As a chiropractor of 23 years I have had the privilege to have a significant effect on my patients and in turn, they have had a profound effect on me. Through the manipulation of the spine and by restoring normal joint function, I have enabled my patients to have a better, more vibrant, quality of life."

Clinics of The Joint are open seven days a week, are conveniently located in retail centers, and do not require appointments or insurance. Patients can choose from several affordable plans and packages, with a significantly lower per visit cost than the average insurance co-pay.
