QCP will architect and execute customized, risk-managed strategies designed to put DDC's treasury assets to work safely. This approach leverages derivatives and other institutional-grade instruments to generate income while adhering to the highest standards of security and compliance.

This partnership marks a significant evolution in the corporate treasury playbook, moving beyond simple asset accumulation to active, risk-managed generation of value from Bitcoin holdings. By joining forces with QCP, DDC reinforces its commitment to long-term value creation through prudent and forward-thinking treasury management, setting a new standard for publicly-listed companies.

"Partnering with QCP is a pivotal next step for DDC as we enhance our Bitcoin treasury's strategic potential while minimizing risks. Yield generation is critical to our long-term value creation goals, and QCP's deep expertise and institutional reputation ensure we can safely and effectively unlock new opportunities for our stakeholders," said Norma Chu, Founder, Chairwoman, and CEO of DDC. "This partnership aligns perfectly with DDC's vision for thoughtful and dynamic treasury management through market cycles."

"DDC is part of an important shift in how corporations view their balance sheets, and we are proud to be their chosen partner for this next phase of their strategy," said Darius Sit, Founder & CIO of QCP. "Putting dormant assets to work is a foundational concept in traditional finance, and our mission is to bring that same level of sophisticated, risk-managed capability to the digital asset world. We will be providing DDC with a comprehensive solution rooted in security, transparency, and operational excellence, proving that a Bitcoin treasury can be both a strategic reserve and a productive asset."

Partnership Highlights

- Activating Treasury Assets: Moving beyond passive holding to safely generate productive yield on DDC's Bitcoin reserves.
- Institutional-Grade Strategies: Architecting and executing customized yield enhancement solutions using regulated, market-tested instruments.
- Pioneering Corporate Stewardship: Establishing a new benchmark for how public companies can dynamically and prudently manage digital assets to create shareholder value.
