LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Rexford Industrial Realty, Inc. (the “Company” or “Rexford Industrial”) (NYSE:REXR), a real estate investment trust focused on owning and operating industrial properties located in Southern California infill markets, today announced that it has acquired Avenue 32, a 100,500 square foot industrial building for $11.0 million, or $109 per square foot. Funding for the acquisition was provided by availability under the Company’s line of credit.

“With the acquisition of Avenue 32, we are excited to expand our presence in the highly sought after Greater San Fernando Valley submarket of Los Angeles, in which we now own more than 1.8 million square feet of industrial space,” stated Howard Schwimmer and Michael Frankel, Co-Chief Executive Officers of the Company. “The two-tenant, 100% leased property, is a best-in-class building with a clear height of 26 feet and 200 car parking. By resolving deferred maintenance items and making targeted value-add enhancements including improved loading, high-pile fire sprinkler systems and renovated offices, we expect to command market-leading rents upon lease renewals or retenuing.”

The property is located in the City of Los Angeles, adjacent to Burbank and Glendale within the East San Fernando Valley, which is a part of the Greater San Fernando Valley submarket. The Greater San Fernando Valley is the second largest submarket in Los Angeles County, comprised of 172 million square feet. It is a leading area for manufacturing, regional distribution, entertainment and creative uses. The property offers convenient access to multiple freeways including the I-5, I-110, SR-2, SR-134 and SR-101. As of March 31, 2014, according to CBRE, the vacancy rate for industrial properties in the Greater San Fernando Valley submarket stood at 1.3%, the lowest vacancy rate of any major Southern California submarket, while the overall Greater Los Angeles vacancy rate stood at 2.4%.
