Liberty Media Receives Stockholder Approval for Split-Off of Liberty Capital and Liberty Starz; Changes Name of Splitco

ENGLEWOOD, Colo.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Liberty Media Corporation ("Liberty") (Nasdaq: LCAPA, LCAPB, LINTA, LINTB, LSTZA, LSTZB) announced that it has received approval from its stockholders to split-off (the "Split-Off") the businesses, assets and liabilities currently attributed to its Liberty Capital and Liberty Starz tracking stock groups.

As previously announced, the Delaware Court of Chancery ruled in Liberty's favor in its case against the Bank of New York that the Split-Off will not constitute a disposition of all or substantially all the assets of Liberty Media, LLC under the indenture governing its public indebtedness. A final decree implementing the ruling was entered on May 9th. The judgment is subject to appeal, which must be lodged within 30 days from the entry of the final decree. If an appeal is filed, Liberty will request expedition of the appeal.

The consummation of the Split-Off is conditioned on a final non-appealable judgment in the Delaware matter, in addition to the other conditions disclosed in Liberty's proxy statement.

In anticipation of the consummation of the Split-Off, Liberty recently changed the name of the entity to be split-off from Liberty Splitco, Inc. to Liberty CapStarz, Inc.
