Liberty Media Closes Private Offering of $450,000,000 of 1.0% Cash Convertible Senior Notes due 2023

ENGLEWOOD, Colo.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Liberty Media Corporation ("Liberty") (Nasdaq: LSXMA, LSXMB, LSXMK, BATRA, BATRK, LMCA, LMCK) announced today that it has closed its previously announced private offering of $450,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 1.0% cash convertible senior notes due 2023 (the "notes"), including notes with an aggregate principal amount of $50 million issued pursuant to the exercise of an option granted to the initial purchasers.

The notes will mature on January 30, 2023 and will be convertible, under certain circumstances, into cash based on the trading prices of the underlying shares of Series C Liberty Media common stock ("LMCK"). The initial conversion rate for the notes will be 27.1091 shares of LMCK per $1,000 principal amount of notes, equivalent to an initial conversion price of approximately $36.89 per share of LMCK. All conversions of notes will be settled in cash, and not through the delivery of any securities.

Liberty used a portion of the net proceeds of the offering to fund an increase to the cash consideration paid to the selling shareholders (the "Selling Shareholders") of Formula 1 ("F1") by $400 million and retained in treasury the approximately 19 million shares that would otherwise have been issuable to the Selling Shareholders based on the per share purchase price of $21.26. These LMCK shares have been reserved by Liberty for issuance to the F1 teams at a per share purchase price of $21.26. The aggregate number of LMCK shares issued at the F1 closing did not change as a result of this transaction. Only the allocation of the shares changed as follows: approximately 56 million to the Selling Shareholders, 62 million to the third party investors and approximately 19 million into treasury. To the extent such shares are not issued to the F1 teams within six months following the closing of the acquisition, which was announced today, the shares will be retired. The remaining net proceeds from the offering are attributed to the Liberty Media Group balance sheet as cash.

Following the completion of the F1 acquisition and the financing described above, approximate ownership of the equity of the Liberty Media Group (to be renamed the Formula One Group) is comprised of ⁽¹⁾: 33% owned by the Selling Shareholders, 28% owned by the third party investors pursuant to an agreement with Liberty announced on December 14, 2016 and 38% owned by existing Liberty Media Group shareholders.

The notes, as well as the associated cash proceeds, are attributed to the Liberty Media Group. Pro forma for this financing and the closing of the F1 acquisition, total debt attributed to the Liberty Media Group includes the notes, $1 billion 1.375% convertible notes due 2023, $445 million Time Warner Inc. exchangeable debentures due 2046, $350 million drawn under a Live Nation margin loan, $36 million of other corporate level debt as of September 30, 2016 and approximately $4.1 billion of existing F1 debt as of July 31, 2016.

The notes have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or any state securities laws and, unless so registered, may not be offered or sold in the United States except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. The notes were offered by means of an offering memorandum solely to "Qualified Institutional Buyers" pursuant to, and as that term is defined in, Rule 144A of the Securities Act.

This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy the notes nor shall there be any sale of notes in any state in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of such state.
