Liberty Media Announces Closing of Increase to Formula 1 First Lien Term Loan and Intended Repayment of Second Lien Term Loan

ENGLEWOOD, Colo.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Liberty Media Corporation ("Liberty") (Nasdaq: LSXMA, LSXMB, LSXMK, BATRA, BATRK, FWONA, FWONK) announced today the closing of the previously announced $200 million add-on to the $3,102 million USD term loan under the syndicated first lien facilities agreement executed by certain subsidiaries of Delta Topco Limited, the Liberty subsidiary which holds all of its interests in Formula 1. The $200 million add-on is on the same terms as the existing USD term loan and will have a margin of 3.25%, with the potential for a further reduction to 3.00% after 2 September 2017 if certain credit rating requirements are met (which requirements are currently met). The term loan remains non-recourse to Liberty. The proceeds of the term loan add-on, together with cash on hand, are intended to be applied today, following completion of the relevant transfers and funding of the term loan add-on, to repay the balance of the $300 million second lien facility to which the subsidiaries of Delta Topco are party. Following the repayment of the second lien facility, the maturity of the USD term loan under the first lien facilities agreement will be extended to February 2024. Delta Topco and its subsidiaries, together with the debt described herein, are attributed to the Formula One Group.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release includes certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including statements relating to the potential reduction in margin, the repayment of $300 million of the term loan under the second lien facilities agreement, the maturity extension of the USD term loan under the first lien facilities agreement and other matters that are not historical facts.
