

Animal Testing Policy

I. Animal Testing Policy

For our topical skin and hair care products, Herbalife does not conduct any animal testing. For ingestible products, Herbalife also does not conduct any animal testing except when required by applicable laws and regulations and no other alternative is available. In instances in which animal testing is required, Herbalife tests only to the minimum extent required and in third-party laboratories that follow internationally accepted protocols for treatment of animal subjects.