FREEHOLD, N.J., Feb. 04, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Avalon GloboCare Corp. (NASDAQ: AVCO) (NASDAQ listed Avalon GloboCare AVCO), a leading global developer of cell-based technologies and therapeutics, announced today that its President and Chief Executive Officer, David Jin, M.D., Ph.D., will co-chair a session, entitled “Status of Cellular Therapy in the Asia Pacific Rim,” at the Transplantation & Cellular Therapy (TCT) Meetings in Houston, TX. TCT Meetings are the combined annual meetings of the American Society of Blood and Marrow Transplantation (ASBMT) and the Center for International Blood and Marrow Transplant Research (CIBMTR).

Date: Saturday, February 23, 2019
Time: 1:45PM - 2:30PM
Location: Hilton Americas Houston - Grand Ballroom G
1600 Lamar Street, Houston, Texas

The session, "Status of Cellular Therapy in the Asia Pacific Rim," will provide a venue to review and examine the current status and future trends in cellular therapy (particularly CAR-T), within Asia and the Pacific Rim region. Faculty for this session will include speakers from China, Japan, and South Korea and will discuss and exchange knowledge on clinical protocols, outcome analysis, regulatory affairs, standardization, and accreditation related to cellular therapy.

Additionally, Avalon GloboCare announces that it has been accepted as a member of the Corporate Council of the American Society for Blood and Marrow Transplantation (ASBMT). Avalon joins a select group of twenty leading biotech companies within the cellular therapy sector, including Novartis, Merck and Co., Amgen, Gilead/Kite, Bristol-Myers

Squibb/Celgene, Sanofi Genzyme, Takeda Oncology and others.

Council members meet with ASBMT Board Members and Past-Presidents to discuss critical BMT and cellular therapy issues of mutual concern, find solutions to pressing challenges, share knowledge on best practices and advise ASBMT on its major initiatives. By pooling their resources and expertise, Council members and the ASBMT Board can engage in joint problem-solving and collaborative opportunities that will advance the cause and culture of blood and marrow transplantation and cellular therapy.

“We are honored to lead this panel discussion at the industry renowned TCT Meetings, comprising the leading experts in an evolving cellular therapy ecosystem. We look forward to leveraging our respective experience and capabilities in cell-based technologies and therapeutics. We are also honored to join the ASBMT’s Corporate Council in order to collaborate alongside many of the world’s largest biotech companies. We will contribute our scientific, regulatory, clinical and commercial expertise to help empower high impact, transformative cell-based technologies and their clinical applications,” stated David Jin, M.D., Ph.D., CEO and President of Avalon GloboCare.
