Skillsoft Named a 2014 Learning! 100 Award Winner

Recognized by Elearning! Media Group for the performance and innovation of its Sales Onboarding Program

NASHUA, N.H.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Skillsoft has been recognized by Elearning! Media Group (EMG) as part of the 2014 Learning! 100 Awards, the annual list of the top 100 private and public sector organizations with best-in-class learning and development programs. Earning the #17 ranking in this year's list of corporate enterprise honorees, Skillsoft was chosen for the success of its internal Sales Onboarding Program, which leverages blended learning expertise and resources to enable Skillsoft sales professionals to fully support the company's mission of being a world-class sales organization and leading provider of learning solutions. Skillsoft received the award at the Enterprise Learning! Conference on August 25, 2014 in Anaheim, CA.

EMG, publisher of Elearning! and Government Elearning! Magazines, is a leading voice in the enterprise learning and workforce technology market. The publications conduct this annual search for top organizations and recognize them for their learning culture, innovation and high performance. Skillsoft's inclusion for its Sales Onboarding Program is a testament not only to the strength of its learning tools and resources, but also to its commitment to using its own elearning solutions to train and develop its employees.

"We are extremely pleased to be selected for the Elearning! Learning! 100 this year," said Tom Cunningham, Vice President, Global Sales Enablement, Skillsoft. "We take pride in our company technologies and resources and make the development of our own sales professionals a top priority."

Building on Skillsoft's recognition and use of its solutions, dozens of Skillsoft customers were also selected as Learning! 100 winners.
