QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE PROXY PROCESS AND VOTING

Q: Why am I receiving these materials?

A: You have received these proxy materials because the Board is soliciting your proxy to vote your shares at the Special Meeting. These proxy solicitation materials are being mailed on or about February 13, 2026 to our stockholders of record as of the close of business on February 12, 2026 (the “Record Date”).

Q: What is included in these materials?

A: These materials include:

- this Proxy Statement for the Special Meeting; and
- a proxy card for the Special Meeting.

Q: Who is entitled to vote?

A: Only stockholders of record as of the Record Date shall be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Special Meeting. During the ten days prior to the Special Meeting, you may inspect a list of stockholders eligible to vote. If you would like to inspect the list, please call our Corporate Secretary at 1-866-620-8655 to arrange an inspection. The list will also be available on request during the Special Meeting.

Q: What may I vote on?

A: You may vote on the following matters:

- Proposal No. 1: Approval, for the purposes of complying with the terms of that certain Securities Purchase Agreement (the “Securities Purchase Agreement”), dated as of January 11, 2026, by and between the Company and a single institutional investor named therein (the “Investor”) and Nasdaq Listing Rule 5635(d), of the exercise of the unregistered common stock warrant (the “Common Warrant”) to purchase up to 4,386,037 shares of our Common Stock and the issuance of shares of common stock thereunder (the “Common Warrant Proposal”); and
- Proposal No. 2: Approval of the adjournment of the Special Meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes to adopt the Common Warrant Proposal (the “Adjournment Proposal” and, together with the Common Warrant Proposal, the “Proposals”).

In addition, you are entitled to vote on any other matters that are properly brought before the Special Meeting.

Q: How many shares of Common Stock can vote?

A: There were 33,295,553 shares of our common stock, par value $0.0001 per share (“Common Stock”), outstanding as of the Record Date. Each stockholder entitled to vote at the Special Meeting may cast one vote for each share of Common Stock owned by such stockholder that has voting power upon each matter considered at the Special Meeting.

Q: Will any other business be presented for action by stockholders at the Special Meeting?

A: The Board of Directors knows of no other business that will be presented for consideration at the Special Meeting. If any other matters are properly brought before the Special Meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the accompanying proxy to vote on those matters in accordance with their best judgment.

Q: How does the Board recommend that I vote on each of the Proposals?

A: Our Board recommends a vote “FOR” the approval of each of the Proposals.

Q: How do I vote my shares?

A: The answer depends on whether you own your shares of Common Stock of the Company directly (that is, you hold shares that show your name as the registered stockholder) or if your shares are held in a brokerage account or by another nominee holder.

If you own shares of the Company directly (i.e., you are a “registered stockholder”), your proxy is being solicited directly by us, and you can vote by Internet, by telephone, by mail or you can vote at our Special Meeting, as set forth below. You are encouraged to vote prior to the Special Meeting to ensure that your shares will be represented.

If you wish to vote by Internet, before the Special Meeting, go to www.proxyvote.com. Have your proxy card in hand when you access the website and follow the instructions to obtain your records and to create an electronic voting instruction form.

If you wish to vote by telephone, call 1-800-690-6903. Use any touch-tone telephone to transmit your voting instructions. Have your proxy card in hand when you call and follow the instructions.

If you wish to vote by mail, mark, sign and date your proxy card and return it in the postage-paid envelope we have provided or return it to Vote Processing, c/o Broadridge, 51 Mercedes Way, Edgewood, NY 11717.

If you wish to vote at the Special Meeting, please follow the instructions that will be available at <https://edge.media-server.com/mmc/go/DWTX2026SGM> during the virtual Special Meeting.

If you sign your proxy card but do not indicate how you wish to vote, the proxies will vote your shares “FOR” each of the Proposals, and, in their discretion, on any other matter that properly comes before the Special Meeting. Unsigned proxy cards will not be counted.

If you hold your shares of the Company through a broker, bank or other nominee (i.e., you are a “beneficial owner”), your shares are held in “street name” and these proxy materials are being forwarded to you by that organization. The organization holding your account is considered the stockholder of record for purposes of voting at the Special Meeting. As a beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your bank, broker or other agent or nominee on how to vote the shares in your account. You are also invited to attend the virtual Special Meeting. However, since you are not the stockholder of record, you may not be able to vote your shares at the Special Meeting or by proxy unless you request and obtain a power of attorney or other proxy authority from your bank, broker or other agent or nominee.

Even if you plan to virtually attend the Special Meeting, we recommend that you vote in advance so that your vote will be counted if you later decide not to attend the Special Meeting. You may also be able to vote by telephone, via the Internet, or at the Special Meeting, depending upon your voting instructions. Please refer to the instructions provided with your voting instruction card and see “What are the procedures for attending and participating in the Special Meeting virtually?” below for information about voting in these ways. See also “What is the effect if I fail to give voting instructions to my broker or other nominee?” below.

Q: What are the procedures for attending and participating in the Special Meeting?

A: The Special Meeting will be a completely virtual meeting. There will be no physical meeting location and the Special Meeting will be conducted online. To participate in the virtual meeting, visit <https://edge.media-server.com/mmc/go/DWTX2026SGM> and enter the control number included on your proxy card or on the instructions that accompanied your proxy materials. You are entitled to attend our Special Meeting only if you were a stockholder as of the Record Date.

Online check-in to the Special Meeting will begin at 9:45 a.m., Eastern Time, and we encourage stockholders to log in early to allow ample time to test their computer audio system.

To participate in the Special Meeting, you will need the 16-digit control number found on your proxy card or the instructions that accompany your proxy materials. If your shares are held in the name of a bank, broker or other holder of record, you should follow the instructions provided by your bank, broker or other holder of record to be able to participate in the Special Meeting.

Q: Will I have the same participation rights in this virtual-only stockholder meeting as I would have at an in-person stockholder meeting?

A: Yes. If you register to attend, and attend, the Special Meeting pursuant to the instructions above, you will be able to vote online during the Special Meeting, change a vote you may have submitted previously, or ask questions online that will be reviewed and, if appropriate, answered by the speakers.

Q: What is a proxy?

A: A proxy is a person you appoint to vote on your behalf. By using any of the methods discussed above, you will be appointing as your proxies Greg Duncan and Angela Walsh. They may act together or individually on your behalf and will have the authority to appoint a substitute to act as proxy. Whether or not you expect to attend the Special Meeting, we request that you please use the means available to you to vote by proxy to ensure that your shares of Common Stock may be voted.

Q: What is the effect if I fail to give voting instructions to my broker or other nominee?

A: If your shares are held by a broker or other nominee, you must provide your broker or nominee with instructions on how to vote your shares for the Proposals in order for your shares to be counted. If you hold your shares in one of these ways, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held in street name, and these proxy materials are being forwarded to you by your broker, bank or other nominee who is considered, with respect to those shares, the stockholder of record. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote your shares. If you hold your shares in street name, your broker, bank or other nominee has enclosed a voting instruction card for you to use in directing your broker, bank or other nominee in how to vote your shares. We encourage you to provide voting instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee. We encourage you to provide voting instructions to the organization that holds your shares.

Brokers, banks or other nominees that are member firms of the Nasdaq Capital Market and who hold shares in street name for customers have the discretion to vote those shares with respect to certain matters if they have not received instructions from the beneficial owners. Brokers, banks or other nominees will have this discretionary authority with respect to routine matters; however, they will not have this discretionary authority with respect to non-routine matters. None of the Proposals are matters for which such brokers, banks or other nominees will have discretionary authority; therefore, if any of your shares are held by brokers, banks or other nominees and you have not provided instructions for the voting of those shares with respect to any of the Proposals, your shares will not be counted as present and such shares shall not count as votes either votes for or against a Proposal.

Q: What if I want to change my vote or revoke my proxy?

A: If you are a registered stockholder, you may change your vote or revoke your proxy at any time before the Special Meeting by (i) going to www.proxyvote.com and logging in using your 16-digit control number provided on your proxy card, or voting instruction form, (ii) attending and voting at the Special Meeting, or (iii) submitting a later dated proxy card. We will count your vote in accordance with the last instructions we receive from you prior to the closing of the polls, whether your instructions are received by mail or at the Special Meeting. If you hold your shares through a broker, bank or other nominee and wish to change your vote, you must follow the procedures required by your nominee.

Q: How many shares must be represented to have a quorum and hold the Special Meeting?

A: The holders of one third of the voting power of the shares of the capital stock of the Company issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the Special Meeting, present in person, present by means of remote communication, or represented by proxy, constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business at the Special Meeting. For purposes of determining whether a quorum exists, we count as present any shares that are voted over the Internet, by telephone, by completing and submitting a proxy card by mail or that are represented virtually at the Special Meeting. Further, for purposes of establishing a quorum, we will count as present shares that a stockholder holds even if the stockholder votes to abstain. If a quorum is not present, we expect to adjourn the Special Meeting until we obtain a quorum.

Q: What vote is required to approve each Proposal?

A: Common Warrant Proposal: A majority of the shares of Common Stock that are present or represented by proxy at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote with respect to this Proposal must be voted in favor of the Common Warrant Proposal. A properly executed proxy marked “ABSTAIN” will not be voted, although it will be counted for purposes of determining the number of shares of Common Stock present or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on the Common Warrant Proposal. Accordingly, if you choose to “ABSTAIN,” with respect to the Common Warrant Proposal, your abstention has the same effect as a vote “AGAINST.”

Adjournment Proposal: A majority of the shares of Common Stock that are present or represented by proxy and entitled to vote with respect to this Proposal must be voted in favor of the Adjournment Proposal. A properly executed proxy marked “ABSTAIN” with respect to the Adjournment Proposal will not be voted, although it will be counted for purposes of determining the number of shares of Common Stock present or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on the Adjournment Proposal. Accordingly, if you choose to “ABSTAIN” with respect to the Adjournment Proposal, your abstention has the same effect as a vote “AGAINST.”

Q: What if additional proposals are presented at the Special Meeting?

A: We do not intend to bring any other matter for a vote at the Special Meeting, and we do not know of anyone else who intends to do so. However, with respect to any other business that properly comes before the Special Meeting, your proxies are authorized to vote on your behalf using their judgment.

Q: What if I return a proxy card but do not make specific choices?

A: If we receive a signed and dated proxy card and the proxy card does not specify how your shares are to be voted, your shares will be voted in favor of the Proposals. If any other matter is properly presented at the Special Meeting, your proxy (i.e., one of the individuals named on your proxy card) will vote your shares in his or her discretion.

Q: Who will count the votes?

A: A representative of Equiniti Trust Company, LLC, acting as the inspector of election, will tabulate and certify the votes.

Q: Who can attend the Special Meeting?

A: All stockholders as of the Record Date are invited to attend the Special Meeting.

Q: Are there any expenses associated with collecting the stockholder votes?

A: We will pay the expenses of soliciting proxies. Following the original mailing of the soliciting materials, we and our agents, including directors, officers and other employees, without additional compensation, may solicit proxies by mail, electronic mail, telephone, facsimile, by other similar means, or in person. Following the original mailing of the soliciting materials, we will request brokers, custodians, nominees and other record holders to forward copies of the soliciting materials to persons for whom they hold shares and to request authority for the exercise of proxies. In such cases, we, upon the request of the record holders, will reimburse such holders for their reasonable expenses. If you choose to access the proxy materials and/or vote through the Internet, you are responsible for any Internet access charges you may incur. If you have any questions about submitting your proxy or require assistance, please contact our Corporate Secretary, Angela Walsh, at 1-866-620-8655.

Q: Where can you find the voting results?

A: Voting results will be reported in a Current Report on Form 8-K, which we will file with the SEC within four business days following the Special Meeting.

Q: What does it mean if I receive more than one set of proxy materials?

A: If you receive more than one set of proxy materials, your shares are registered in more than one name or are registered in different accounts. In order to vote all the shares you own, you must either sign and return all of the proxy cards or follow the instructions for any alternative voting procedure on each of the proxy cards.

PROPOSAL NO. 1

APPROVAL, FOR THE PURPOSES OF COMPLYING WITH THE TERMS OF THE SECURITIES PURCHASE AGREEMENT AND NASDAQ LISTING RULE 5635(d), OF THE EXERCISE OF THE COMMON WARRANT TO PURCHASE UP TO 4,386,037 SHARES OF OUR COMMON STOCK AND THE ISSUANCE OF SHARES OF COMMON STOCK THEREUNDER

We are asking stockholders to approve this Proposal to permit the exercise of the Common Warrant by the Investor in accordance with the terms therein and the issuance of shares of Common Stock upon exercise of the Common Warrant.

On January 11, 2026, we entered into the Securities Purchase Agreement with the Investor pursuant to which we agreed to sell and issue in a registered direct offering to the Investor 2,338,948 shares of our Common Stock. In a concurrent private placement pursuant to the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Company agreed to sell to the Investor (i) unregistered pre-funded warrant to purchase up to 2,047,089 shares of Common Stock and (ii) the Common Warrant. The Common Warrant has an initial exercise price of $3.28 per warrant share and entitles the Investor to acquire up to 4,386,037 shares of our Common Stock upon their exercise.

Why the Company Needs Stockholder Approval

We are seeking stockholder approval of the Common Warrant Proposal in order to comply with the terms of the Securities Purchase Agreement and to permit the issuance of the shares of Common Stock upon exercise of the Common Warrant under Nasdaq Listing Rule 5635(d). Under the Securities Purchase Agreement, if stockholder approval for this Proposal is not obtained, then the exercise of the Common Warrant will not be permitted. If the Common Warrant Proposal is not approved at the Special Meeting, we will be required to hold a meeting of our stockholders at least every three months to solicit and take a vote on the approval sought in this Proposal until either such approval is obtained or the Common Warrant is no longer outstanding. The process of continuing to hold stockholder meetings to obtain such approval would cause us to incur significant legal expenses and could divert our management's attention from the operation of our business.

The shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the pre-funded warrant and Common Warrant issued pursuant to the Securities Purchase Agreement would amount to approximately 20.05% of our outstanding shares immediately prior to the execution of the Securities Purchase Agreement. In order to comply with Nasdaq Listing Rule 5635(d), the Common Warrant is unable to be exercised and the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such exercise are unable to be issued until and unless our stockholders approve the Common Warrant Proposal.

Effect on Current Stockholders

If the Common Warrant Proposal is adopted, up to 4,386,037 shares of Common Stock would be issued upon exercise of the Common Warrant, assuming all of the Common Warrant are fully exercised. The issuance of such shares would result in dilution to our stockholders who are not the Investor and would afford our stockholders a smaller percentage interest in the voting power, liquidation value, and aggregate book value of the Company. This means that our current stockholders who are not party to the Securities Purchase Agreement will own a smaller interest in us as a result of the conversion and therefore have less ability to influence significant corporate decisions requiring stockholder approval. Issuance of shares of Common Stock upon exercise of the Common Warrant will also have a dilutive effect on book value per share and any future earnings per share. Dilution of equity interests could also cause prevailing market prices for our Common Stock to decline.

Description of the Common Warrant

Duration and Exercise Price

Each Common Warrant is a warrant to purchase shares of Common Stock and will be exercisable at any time on or after the date our stockholders approve the exercise and will expire five years and six months from such date. The Common Warrant has an initial exercise price equal to $3.28 per warrant share.

Exercise Price Adjustment

The exercise price and number of shares issuable upon exercise is subject to appropriate proportional adjustment in the event of share dividends, share splits, sales of Purchase Rights (as defined in the Common Warrant), reorganizations or similar events affecting our Common Stock and the exercise price. In addition, the exercise price of the Common Warrant can be reduced to any amount and for any period of time deemed appropriate by the Board.

Floor Price

There is no floor price for the Common Warrant. The exercise price of the Common Warrant can be reduced to any amount and for any period of time deemed appropriate by the Board.

Transferability

Subject to applicable laws, a Common Warrant may be transferred at the option of the holder upon surrender of the Common Warrant to us together with the appropriate instruments of transfer and funds sufficient to pay any transfer taxes payable upon such transfer.

Trading Market

There is no trading market available for the Common Warrant on any securities exchange or nationally recognized trading system. We do not intend to list the Common Warrant on any securities exchange or nationally recognized trading system.

Rights as a Stockholder

Except as otherwise provided in the Common Warrant or by virtue of such holder's ownership of the underlying shares of Common Stock, the holders of the Common Warrant do not have the rights or privileges of holders of our Common Stock, including any voting rights, until they exercise their Common Warrant.

Interests of Directors and Executive Officers

No director, executive officer, associate of any director or executive officer or any other person has any substantial interest, direct or indirect, by security holdings or otherwise, in the Common Warrant Proposal that is not shared by our stockholders.

Vote Required for Approval of this Proposal

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock that are present or represented by proxy and entitled to vote with respect to this Proposal is required to approve the Common Warrant Proposal. The holders of Common Stock have the right to cast one vote per share of Common Stock on this Proposal.

Recommendation

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE APPROVAL OF THE COMMON WARRANT PROPOSAL.

PROPOSAL NO. 2

APPROVAL OF THE ADJOURNMENT OF THE SPECIAL MEETING TO A LATER DATE OR DATES, IF NECESSARY OR APPROPRIATE, TO SOLICIT ADDITIONAL PROXIES IF THERE ARE INSUFFICIENT VOTES TO ADOPT THE COMMON WARRANT PROPOSAL

If at the Special Meeting the number of votes represented by shares of the Common Stock present or represented and voting in favor of the Common Warrant Proposal is insufficient to approve the Common Warrant Proposal, our management may move to adjourn the Special Meeting in order to enable our Board to continue to solicit additional proxies in favor of such Proposal.

In this Adjournment Proposal, we are asking our stockholders to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited to vote in favor of adjourning, postponing or continuing the Special Meeting and any later adjournments. If our stockholders approve the adjournment, postponement or continuation proposal, we could adjourn, postpone or continue the Special Meeting, and any adjourned session of the Special Meeting, to use the additional time to solicit additional proxies in favor of the Common Warrant Proposal, including the solicitation of proxies from stockholders that have previously voted against the Common Warrant Proposal. If stockholder approval for this Proposal is not obtained, then the Special Meeting will not be adjourned.

Vote Required for Approval of this Proposal

The affirmative vote of the majority of votes cast is required to approve the Adjournment Proposal.

Recommendation

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE “FOR” THE APPROVAL OF THE ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL.

In addition, under our bylaws, a stockholder of record on the date of the giving of the written notice to introduce a nomination or to propose an item of business must follow certain procedures to nominate persons for election as directors or to introduce an item of business at an annual meeting of stockholders. These procedures provide that a nomination for director nominee(s) and/or an item of business to be introduced at an annual meeting of stockholders must be submitted in writing to our Corporate Secretary at our offices at Dogwood Therapeutics, Inc., 44 Milton Avenue, Alpharetta, GA 30009. We must receive written notice of your intention to introduce a nomination or to propose an item of business at our 2026 Annual Meeting:

DELIVERY OF DOCUMENTS TO STOCKHOLDERS SHARING AN ADDRESS

Some banks, brokers and other nominee record holders may participate in the practice of “householding” proxy statements, annual reports and notices of Internet availability of proxy materials. This means that only one copy of a notice and/or proxy materials may have been sent to multiple stockholders in your household. We will promptly deliver a separate copy of any such documents to you if you write or call our Corporate Secretary at Dogwood Therapeutics, Inc., 44 Milton Avenue, Alpharetta, GA 30009; telephone: 1-866-620-8655.

If you want to receive separate copies of our proxy materials in the future, or if you are receiving multiple copies and would like to receive only one copy for your household, you should contact your bank, broker, or other nominee record holder, or you may contact our Corporate Secretary, in writing, at the address listed above.
