CEO COMMENTARY

"Synchrony's first quarter results reflected both the core strengths of our business and the continued execution of our key strategic priorities," said Brian Doubles, Synchrony's President and Chief Executive Officer.

"We deeply understand the needs and expectations of our customers and partners, which enables us to deliver financing solutions and experiences that strongly resonate — building longlasting relationships and greater value over time.

"Synchrony's differentiated business model consistently positions us as the partner of choice. Whether we are powering financing experiences for local merchants, healthcare providers or national brands, we are able to meet our customers where, when and however they want to be met. The scalability of our technology platform, the breadth of our product suite and the depth of our lending insights across many industries, positions us to consistently deliver sustainable and attractive outcomes for all our stakeholders."

CFO COMMENTARY

"Synchrony's strong first quarter results demonstrated the value we provide to our customers and partners, alike," said Brian Wenzel, Synchrony's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer.

"We achieved double-digit growth in purchase volume across four of our five sales platforms, and loan receivables growth accelerated across all five, thanks in part to some moderation in payment rate.

"Credit trends continued to reflect both the health of the consumer and the resilience that comes from our sophisticated underwriting capabilities.

"As loss levels gradually normalize toward our optimal underwriting target, interest income and receivables will continue to grow and RSA's will moderate — enabling our business to continue to generate financial results within a consistent, peerleading range of returns."
