Regent Seven Seas Cruises® Elevates Onboard Entertainment with Exciting New Productions

Six Incredible New Shows to Debut Fleetwide in 2025

MIAMI, January 16, 2025 – Regent Seven Seas Cruises®, the world's leading ultra luxury cruise line, has announced an exciting new lineup of onboard entertainment offerings debuting across its fleet throughout 2025. Featuring high-energy performances, immersive storytelling, and innovative concepts, the new shows have been curated following guest feedback and exemplify Regent's commitment to delivering luxury experiences which are Unrivaled at Sea™.

Building on a legacy of exceptional onboard entertainment, the upcoming productions will delight guests with fresh creativity and a modern approach, blending iconic music, dance, and interactivity. The shows range from homages to legendary female rock artists and British pop acts, to celebrations of Motown and 1940's big band, as well as a brand-new music trivia game show concept and more.

"Along with beautifully designed ships, exquisite cuisine, immersive exploration, and heartfelt hospitality, world-class entertainment is a key element of the Regent Seven Seas Cruises experience," said Jason Montague, incoming Chief Luxury Officer, Regent Seven Seas Cruises. "With our new lineup of shows, we continue to push the boundaries of luxury cruising by offering our guests fresh, innovative, and exhilarating performances that cater to their refined tastes and elevate the overall vacation experience."

Under the artistic direction of Kai Alan Carrier, Director Creative, Shows and Experiences, Regent's entertainment strategy combines expert choreography, captivating storytelling, and state-of-the-art production values. With over 25 years of experience, Carrier has crafted an exciting mix of new performances that resonate with Regent's sophisticated guests.

"We wanted to create shows that honor beloved musical eras while adding a contemporary twist," said Kai Alan Carrier, Director Creative, Shows and Experiences, Regent Seven Seas Cruises. "Each production has been designed to celebrate artistry, engage the audience, and deliver unforgettable moments. They perfectly complement the already exceptional raft of shows currently performed on board The World's Most Luxurious Fleet."

Montague continued, "Having asked our guests what it was they want to see on our grand theatre and lounge stages, these productions reflect our commitment to staying at the forefront of ultra luxury travel. We pride ourselves on constantly improving our product and providing experiences that resonate with the sophisticated and discerning guests we are honored to serve."

The 2025 show schedule introduces several exciting new productions across the fleet, all of which are complimentary to watch as part of Regent's All-inclusive Cruise Fare:
