Full House Resorts Receives Final NIGC Approval for Battle Creek, Michigan Casino

LAS VEGAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

Full House Resorts (AMEX: FLL) announced today that Gaming Entertainment Michigan, LLC (GEM), a 50%-owned joint venture of the Company, has received final approval for its gaming management contract from the National Indian Gaming Commission (NIGC). As previously stated, the Company now expects to work with the Nottawaseppi Huron Band of Potawatomi's FireKeepers Development Authority on financing and construction of its FireKeepers Casino in Battle Creek, Michigan.

Andre M. Hilliou, Chief Executive Officer of Full House Resorts, said, "We are pleased to receive approval from the NIGC which was needed before obtaining financing and beginning construction on what we expect to become one of the premier gaming facilities in Michigan. The casino - located at Exit 104 on 79 acres of frontage land on Interstate 94 between Chicago and Detroit - is expected to have more than 3,000 gaming positions and a 2,000 space parking garage. We also expect the FireKeepers Casino to become a major driver of shareholder value for Full House."

Once financing is secured, ground-breaking is slated for early 2008 with a grand opening of FireKeepers Casino expected in early 2009. Full House has a management agreement with the Nottawaseppi Huron Band of Potawatomi through GEM, where it has been developing and will manage the FireKeepers Casino for seven years after its opening.

About Full House Resorts, Inc.

Full House owns, develops and manages gaming facilities. Full House owns the Stockman's Casino and Holiday Inn Express in Fallon, Nevada which has 8,400 square feet of gaming space with approximately 260 gaming machines, four table games and a keno game.
