

November 12, 2014

Full House Resorts Celebrates Topping Off of the New Silver Slipper Casino Hotel

LAS VEGAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Full House Resorts (NASDAQ:FLL) today announced the celebration of the “Topping Off” of its new 142-room hotel at the Company’s Silver Slipper Casino property in Hancock County, Mississippi. Community leaders, employees and investors have been invited to attend a special ceremony on-site at the property.

“We are excited today to celebrate the topping off of the new hotel tower at the Silver Slipper Casino,” said Andre Hilliou, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Full House Resorts. “We are on schedule to open in the first quarter of 2015 and this topping off is an important step in completing what is sure to be a fantastic addition to the Silver Slipper.” Mr. Hilliou continued, “From the moment we purchased the Silver Slipper it was our intention to build a first class hotel tower to welcome our loyal customers and invite new guests from further distances who will now have the option to stay overnight at our exciting casino on the Gulf Coast of Mississippi.”

About Full House Resorts, Inc.

Full House owns, develops and manages gaming facilities throughout the country. The Rising Star Riverboat Casino in Rising Sun, Indiana has 35,000 square feet of gaming space with approximately 926 slot and video poker machines and 30 table games. The property includes 294 hotel rooms, a pavilion with five food and beverage outlets, an 18-hole Scottish links golf course and a large, multi-purpose Grand Theater for concerts and performance events as well as meetings and conventions. The Silver Slipper Casino in Hancock County, Mississippi, has 37,000 square feet of gaming space with approximately 940 slot and video poker machines, 26 table games, and the only live Keno game on the Gulf Coast. The property includes a fine dining restaurant, buffet, quick service restaurant and two casino bars. Stockman’s Casino in Fallon, Nevada has 8,400 square feet of gaming space with approximately 265 gaming machines, four table games and a keno game. The Company also operates the Grand Lodge Casino at the Hyatt Regency Lake Tahoe Resort, Spa and Casino in Incline Village, Nevada on the north shore of Lake Tahoe under a lease agreement with the Hyatt organization. Further information about Full House Resorts can be viewed on its website at www.fullhouseressorts.com.

Forward-looking Statements

Some of the statements made in this release are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based upon Full House’s current expectations and projections about future events and generally relate to Full House’s plans, objectives and expectations for Full House’s business. Although Full House’s management believes that the plans and objectives expressed in these forward-looking statements are reasonable, the outcome of such plans, objectives and expectations involve risks and uncertainties including without limitation, regulatory approvals, including the ability to maintain a gaming license in Indiana, Nevada and Mississippi, financing sources and terms, integration of acquisitions, the ability to refinance indebtedness, competition and business conditions in the gaming industry, including competition from Ohio casinos and any possible authorization of gaming in Kentucky. Additional information concerning potential factors that could affect Full House's financial condition and results of operations is included in the reports Full House files with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including, but not limited to, its Form 10-K for the most recently ended fiscal year.

Full House Resorts, Inc.

Mark Miller, Chief Operating Officer, 702-221-7800

www.fullhouseresorsts.com

or

ICR

Dan Foley, 203-604-4553

investors@fullhouseresorsts.com

Source: Full House Resorts