Full House Resorts Announces General Manager for Stockman's Casino

LAS VEGAS, Feb. 03, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Full House Resorts (Nasdaq:FLL) announced today that it has promoted Benjamin Douglass to general manager of the Company's Stockman's Casino in Fallon, Nevada. Mr. Douglass will transfer from the Company's Bronco Billy's property in Cripple Creek, Colorado, where he currently serves as its assistant general manager.

Originally from Reno, Nevada, Mr. Douglass began his casino career in 2005 at Bronco Billy's Casino and Hotel. He has worked in various casino roles at Bronco Billy's, including as the casino operations manager, and created the property's first casino host program. For the past four years, Mr. Douglass has served as the property's assistant general manager, overseeing all departments with an emphasis on the table games, information technology, and casino host areas. Mr. Douglass earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Gonzaga University.

"I am excited to promote Ben to a general manager role," said Daniel R. Lee, President and Chief Executive Officer of Full House Resorts. "Over the last few months, we have invested significantly in Stockman's Casino to create, in many ways, an entirely new property. Ben will do an excellent job leading our re-energized Stockman's Casino into its new future."

About Stockman's Casino

Stockman's Casino is located in Fallon, Nevada on Highway 50, approximately 60 miles east of Reno, Nevada. The property has approximately 235 slot machines and four table games. It is in the midst of significant exterior improvements, including the creation of a new parking lot, a new porte cochere, visibility and sign improvements, and lush landscaping surrounding the casino's entrances.
