Grand Lodge Casino Further Elevates Guest Experience

Completes $5 Million Casino Transformation

LAS VEGAS, June 30, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Full House Resorts (NASDAQ:FLL) announced that it, in conjunction with an affiliate of Hyatt, has completed a $5 million transformation of Grand Lodge Casino, located at Hyatt Regency Lake Tahoe Resort, Spa & Casino. The extensive improvements solidify the property's position as Northern Nevada's leading gaming and hospitality resort. Grand Lodge Casino is operated by Full House Resorts.

The new casino features scenic murals, warm tapestries and rich woven carpets that complement the resort's unique setting along the north shore of Lake Tahoe. The new décor introduces both excitement and intimacy to the gaming area, while opulent ceilings and updated lighting elevate the ambiance and transform the space. Casino improvements also include all-new, height-adjustable slot chairs; all-new table games and chairs; and the addition of numerous new slot machines, including today's most popular games.

"We value our long-standing relationship with Hyatt and have been pleased to work together to create a casino environment that is comparable to the best in the industry," said Daniel R. Lee, President and CEO of Full House Resorts. "This AAA Four Diamond resort is truly unique, and this renovation further elevates the resort above its competitors in Northern California and Nevada."

Scott Ruhl, General Manager of Northern Nevada for Full House Resorts, added, "Our entire team is excited about the beautiful new environment. We look forward to welcoming our longstanding friends and new guests to experience all of these wonderful casino improvements."
