Westell Renews $5 Million Line of Credit

AURORA, Ill., September 2, 2025 -- Westell Technologies, Inc. (the "Company" or "Westell"), a leading provider of high-performance wireless infrastructure solutions, announced today the execution of a new $5 million credit agreement with St. Charles Bank & Trust Company, N.A., effective August 31, 2025. The agreement replaces the Company's existing asset-based credit facility, which was approaching expiration.

The updated credit agreement has an expiration date of August 31, 2026, providing a full year of additional financial runway. Additionally, the new agreement provides a simplified structure with the elimination of the borrowing base calculation.

The new credit facility reinforces Westell's robust balance sheet and provides continued flexibility for operational requirements, working capital management, and strategic expansion opportunities. The line of credit features competitive terms and conditions that reflect the Company's strong financial position and banking relationship. Notably, the Company has never drawn on this facility or its predecessor.

Westell's financial strength is further demonstrated by its substantial cash position, with $18.6 million in cash and cash equivalents reported as of June 30, 2025.
