Titan America Earns Key Miami-Dade Approvals, Accelerating Expansion into Precast Lintel Market

NORFOLK, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Titan America SA (NYSE: TTAM) ("Titan America" or "the Company"), a leading vertically-integrated producer and supplier of building materials, services and solutions in the construction industry operating along the U.S. East Coast, today announced an important strategic milestone: on September 30, 2025, the Company received Miami-Dade County's Notice of Acceptance ("NOA") for more than 40 lintel product SKUs, a key certification under the Florida Building Code (including the High Velocity Hurricane Zone). This achievement paves the way for Titan America to expand its precast solutions beyond concrete block by entering into the precast and prestressed lintel market, enhancing its vertical integration model, and accelerating growth through new adjacent channels.

The certification signals that Titan America's lintel designs meet rigorous structural resilience standards enforced in one of the most demanding building jurisdictions in the U.S. Miami-Dade's product approvals are widely accepted by other permitting authorities across Florida, creating a de facto gateway to broader regional adoption.

"Achieving this NOA validates not only our product engineering rigor, but our ability to expand strategically into high-potential adjacent markets," said Bill Zarkalis, Chief Executive Officer of Titan America. "By securing certification under Miami-Dade's most stringent standards, we remove a major barrier to regulatory acceptance across the region. This marks a new chapter in Titan America's growth trajectory, and we believe the return profile will be compelling."

Titan America's strategic expansion into lintels complements its established capabilities in cement, aggregates, concrete, and construction materials. Leveraging its technology, product development, logistics, and downstream customer relationships, Titan America is uniquely positioned to scale quickly in this new market while preserving high margins and quality of earnings.

Currently, Titan America is in the engineering phase for site development and facility design for its first state-of-the-art lintel manufacturing plant. Once engineering is complete, the Company intends to ramp toward the next steps for commercial production.
