Antero Midstream and AMGP Announce Approval of Simplification Transaction and Proration Results

DENVER, March 11, 2019 /PRNewswire/ --Antero Midstream Partners LP (NYSE: AM) ("AM," "Antero Midstream" or the "Partnership") and Antero Midstream GP LP (NYSE: AMGP) ("AMGP") announced today that at special meetings of Antero Midstream common unitholders and AMGP shareholders, Antero Midstream's unitholders and AMGP's shareholders voted to approve the previously announced simplification transaction between Antero Midstream and AMGP. In addition, Antero Midstream and AMGP have received the merger consideration proration results from American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC.

The previously announced simplification transaction was subject to, among other things, the approval of holders of a majority of the shares held by AMGP Shareholders and the approval of holders of a majority of the AMGP shares held by AMGP's shareholders excluding the original private equity sponsors, Series B holders, and affiliates of AMGP's general partner. The transaction was also subject to the approval of holders of a majority of the AM units held by AM unitholders and the approval of holders of a majority of the AM units held by AM unitholders other than Antero Resources Corporation ("Antero Resources"), the original private equity sponsors, the Series B holders and affiliates of AM's general partner. The simplification transaction is expected to close on March 12, 2019. In connection with closing, AMGP will change its name to "Antero Midstream Corporation" ("New AM") and its common stock is expected to begin trading on the New York Stock Exchange under the "AM" ticker symbol on March 13, 2019. Antero Midstream common units and AMGP common shares will no longer be publicly traded after the completion of the simplification transaction.

Special Meetings Voting Results

Based on the results from Antero Midstream's special meeting to approve the simplification agreement and the related transactions, approximately 93.9% of the outstanding AM common units were voted in person or by proxy. Approximately 93.8% of the outstanding AM common units voted to approve the simplification agreement and related transactions, including 86.8% of the outstanding AM common units held by AM unitholders other than Antero Resources, the original private equity sponsors, the Series B holders and affiliates of AM's general partner.

Based on the results from AMGP's special meeting to approve the simplification agreement and the related transactions, approximately 91.9% of the outstanding AMGP common shares were voted in person or by proxy. Approximately 80.0% of the outstanding AMGP common shares held by AMGP shareholders other than the original private equity sponsors, the Series B holders and affiliates of AMGP's general partner voted to approve the simplification agreement and related transactions.

Commenting on the results, Paul Rady, Chairman and CEO, said "Today's voting results from AM unitholders and AMGP shareholders reaffirm the benefits of the simplification transaction and demonstrate strong support for New AM's outlook. Structured as a C-Corp for both governance and tax purposes, we believe New AM will be a best-in-class midstream infrastructure corporation with enhanced appeal to institutional investors and valuable shareholder rights."
