During the high-energy event, players of all skill levels came together to celebrate the game and compete for prizes. After an intense three rounds of play, the top four winners were crowned, with each taking home a cash prize, showcasing both strategy and skill in their journey to the podium.

"The overwhelming participation and excitement at our first World Mahjong Tour event reaffirms our vision to build a vibrant, connected mahjong community," said Yinghua Chen, CEO of Allied Gaming & Entertainment. "Mahjong has a rich cultural history, and through events like this, we aim to elevate it as a global experience that unites players through fun, competition, and tradition."

The World Mahjong Tour is dedicated to fostering a friendly, inclusive, and positive community of players across the world. Through a series of themed parties, regional and global tournaments, engaging mobile games, and dynamic content, WMT seeks to provide innovative ways for players to experience and celebrate the game they love.

The first WMT tournament event at HyperX Arena was just the beginning. WMT is set to continue its mission to host more events and expand its community in 2025 and beyond. For those interested in joining upcoming events and being a part of the growing World Mahjong Tour movement, stay tuned for future announcements.
