SinglePoint, Inc. Provides Update on Corporate Audit and Advancement to OTCQB

SEATTLE, WA / ACCESSWIRE / September 19, 2016 /SinglePoint, Inc. (OTC: SING), a full-service mobile technology and marketing provider, today announces it is in the final preparations of its corporate audit needed to become a fully reporting corporation and uplist its common stock to the OTCQB® Venture Market Place.

Once the audit is complete, which could be as early as next week, SinglePoint will file Form 10 with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and become a fully reporting company. Upon acceptance by the SEC, the Company plans to complete its process of uplisting to the OTCQB within 60 days.

"We have diligently worked alongside MaloneBailey to prepare this audit and increase SinglePoint's corporate and shareholder value," stated CEO Greg Lambrecht. "Not only will the completion of these efforts provide us better financing options and allow institutional investors to invest directly on the open market, it also correlates with our M&A strategy. Additionally, as an OTCQB-listed company we expect to see greater liquidity, as well as brand awareness among the investment community."
