VSE Corporation Awarded $53.4M in FMS Delivery Orders

ALEXANDRIA, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- VSE Corporation (NASDAQ: VSEC) was awarded several delivery orders in September 2016 to provide support under its Foreign Military Sales (FMS) support contract by the Naval Sea Systems Command (NAVSEA) International Fleet Support Program Office. VSE will provide maritime program support including logistics, planning, repair and maintenance management, supply support, technical assistance, training and engineering support to a variety of client countries. The periods of performance for these delivery orders range between 9 and 20 months, and the delivery orders have a combined funded value of $53.4 million.

"We are pleased to provide the best in-country technical and training support services available to ensure our allied navies achieve their maritime mission requirements," said Federal Group President JR Brown. "Our team is well positioned to execute these delivery orders and exceed our customers' expectations."
