MIAMI, FL / ACCESSWIRE / July 7, 2022 /Gauchó Group Holdings, Inc. Gauchó - Buenos Aires' Miami flagship may for example become a desired location for wine tasting activations and special showroom events for Algodon's associated real estate project.

"We're very excited to open our flagship location in Miami's Design District," said Scott Mathis, CEO & Chairman of Gauchó Group Holdings, Inc. "This prestigious location can serve as a visceral glimpse into our growing portfolio. We envision that each of our assets, Algodon Fine Wines, Gauchó - Buenos Aires, Algodon Wine Estates, and our home décor line, Gauchó Casa - can in some way be highlighted in this extraordinary space. In a post Covid-19 world, we expect people will be more focused than ever on enjoying life to the fullest, and that the next decade may well see a boom in consumer spending. As we focus on scaling each of our companies, we seek to create a global community built on a shared passion for living well, on our estates, through our products and in homes across the world."
