Taleo is the only company to provide industry leading solutions in every category of Talent Management. Through its cloud-based platform, Taleo optimizes recruiting, performance management, learning and compensation -- and integrates them all so managers have the insights they need to achieve Talent Intelligence. Helping customers connect new hire performance and retention data with sourcing strategies and recruiting programs, Taleo's recruiting technology powers efforts with the intelligence needed to understand candidates and build a high performance workforce. With this integration, Taleo users will have immediate single sign-on access to TALX WOTC Tax Credit and Incentive services from their familiar Taleo zone.

"TALX is committed to providing our clients with the most robust and effective tax credit screening services and helping employers meet and screen their candidates where ever they are; by phone, by paper, by web and now by integration with Taleo's recruiting solution," commented Dann Adams, president of TALX.

Angela Lockman, vice president, Tax Credits and Incentives at TALX added, "We're pleased that TALX can now help Taleo clients automatically discover opportunities for reducing their tax liability as they recruit talent for open positions."

Through TALX Tax Credit and Incentive services, candidates are prompted to complete WOTC screening online as they apply for positions using Taleo Recruiting to ensure that employers meet important tax credit screening and submission requirements. The integration allows for a seamless link between Taleo's Passport system to TALX tax credit screening questions. After applicants complete the screening questions, TALX analyzes the responses and returns an eligibility determination to the employer in real time. Upon WOTC eligibility, pre-filled, printable WOTC forms are available directly through Taleo. Employers also benefit from TALX online reporting capabilities, providing hiring managers with immediate access to WOTC credit calculation and reporting.
