New Residential Investment Corp. Announces Refinancing of Senior Secured Term Loan

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- New Residential Investment Corp. (NYSE: NRZ; “New Residential” or the “Company”) announced that it has closed its previously announced offering of $550 million aggregate principal amount of 6.250% senior unsecured notes due 2025 (the “notes”). The Company used net proceeds from the offering, together with cash on hand, to prepay and retire its three-year 11.00% senior secured term loan facility and to pay related fees and expenses.

“We are excited to announce the closing of our inaugural senior unsecured bond offering and the refinancing of our 11.00% corporate term loan into lower coupon 6.250% capital,” said Michael Nierenberg, Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of New Residential. “The refinancing of the secured term loan will provide us additional financial flexibility and result in approximately $30 million of annualized savings. This is a terrific transaction that reflects New Residential’s deep franchise value and represents a key step in further reducing our overall cost of capital. As we have gone through the third quarter of 2020, we have continued to lower our cost of funds across our capital structure, issuing eight securitizations for approximately $3.5 billion UPB of collateral.¹ We estimate that the refinancing of existing securitizations will result in savings of approximately $20 million per year.”

ABOUT NEW RESIDENTIAL
