“We are thrilled to have these absolutely beautiful Buchardt Audio speakers in the WiSA wireless audio family,” said Tony Ostrom, president of WiSA. “Buchardt has done an amazing job of extending their speaker assortment into the wireless arena and offering a perfect combination of simplicity, stunning esthetic and high-end performance.”

“We are very happy to be a part of the WiSA Association and the wireless audio movement,” said Mads Buchardt, Founder and CEO of Buchardt Audio. “The A500 and A700 are natural progressions from our award winning S300 and S400 passive speakers and taking them into the powered and wireless realm gives us more ability to create complete solutions that deliver incredible performances without complicated installations and additional components.”

The Buchardt Audio A500 monitor and A700 tower both include quad core DSP processing, dual DAC chip systems, pure digital signal paths, low level enhancement and are available in walnut, white and black finishes. The drivers in the A500 are powered by three 150 watt amplifiers in a 3-way sealed enclosure. The A700 contains four 150 watt amplifiers and uses a 3.5-way sealed enclosure.

The A500 is priced at €3,500/pr (white and black) and €3,650/pr (walnut) while the A700 is priced at €6,000/pr (white and black) and €6,200/pr (walnut). All models are available for worldwide shipping on the Buchardt website at www.buchardtaudio.com.
