Liberty Media Reports Third Quarter Financial Results

Liberty Shareholders Approve Plan to Issue Two New Tracking Stocks

Board of Directors Increases Liberty Interactive Share Repurchase Authorization by $1 Billion

ENGLEWOOD, Colo., Nov. 9 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Liberty Media Corporation ("Liberty") reported third quarter results for both its Liberty Interactive Group and Liberty Capital Group.

As previously announced, on October 23, 2007, Liberty shareholders approved the proposed reclassification of Liberty Capital common stock into two new tracking stocks, Liberty Capital and Liberty Entertainment. The issuance of the two new tracking stocks is subject to the completion of the previously announced exchange of Liberty's stock in News Corporation for stock in a newly formed corporate subsidiary of News Corporation that will hold News Corp's 40% stake in DirecTV holdings, three regional sports networks, and cash.

Also, as previously announced, Liberty's board of directors authorized the repurchase of up to an additional $1 billion of Liberty Interactive common stock. This authorization increases to $3 billion the total amount authorized to be repurchased since the Liberty Interactive shares began trading in May 2006. Including this increase, Liberty currently has approximately $1 billion remaining under its Liberty Interactive stock repurchase authorization.

"We are pleased our shareholders approved the new tracking stocks and look forward to issuing the new equities upon completion of the News deal. This is another step in our ongoing effort to better focus Liberty's assets and create a stronger operating company orientation," stated Liberty President and CEO Greg Maffei. "At Liberty Interactive, while we are not satisfied with QVC's financial performance in this challenging retail environment, we remain confident in management's ability to improve the results and return QVC to a stronger growth trajectory," added Maffei.

- (1) Please see below for the definition of operating cash flow and a discussion of management's use of this performance measure. Schedule 1 to this press release provides a reconciliation of Liberty's consolidated segment operating cash flow for its operating segments to consolidated earnings from continuing operations before income taxes and minority interests. Schedule 2 to this press release provides a reconciliation of the operating cash flow for each privately held entity presented herein to that entity's operating income for the same period, as determined under GAAP.

LIBERTY INTERACTIVE GROUP -- Liberty Interactive Group's revenue increased 4% and operating cash flow decreased 1% for the third quarter of 2007. Liberty Interactive Group's results are comprised of QVC, Inc. ("QVC"), Provide Commerce, Inc., BUYSEASONS, Inc., and Backcountry.com, Inc. which was acquired in June 2007.

QVC

QVC's consolidated revenue increased 2% to $1.69 billion and operating cash flow decreased 1% to $364 million.

"We are disappointed with the soft sales results in the U.S., driven in part by a sluggish retail environment and difficult year over year comparisons," stated QVC CEO Mike George. "However, we chose not to adopt a heavily promotional focus in the quarter and were able to maintain stable margin rates despite the slower sales growth. Our German and Japanese operations also experienced weak sales results, as they focused on broadening their assortments and addressing the heightened competitive and regulatory challenges they face." George added, "On a more positive note, the UK business experienced solid gains in revenue and OCF growth. Finally, during the third quarter we successfully launched our new brand and logo and began testing our redesigned website to strong reviews. We are excited about these endeavors and believe they will have a positive long-term effect on the business."

QVC's U.S. revenue increased 2% to $1.17 billion and operating cash flow increased 2% to $278 million. The domestic revenue increase was mainly attributable to increased sales in the apparel area. U.S. revenue was adversely affected by lower gold jewelry and home product sales. The total number of units shipped increased 1% to 28.0 million and the average selling price increased 1% from $45.48 to $45.89. QVC.com sales as a percentage of domestic sales grew from 19% in the third quarter of 2006 to 21% in the third quarter of 2007. The U.S. operating cash flow margin remained consistent period to period at 24%.

QVC's international revenue increased 2% to $512 million due to favorable foreign currency exchange rates in the UK and Germany. International revenue was negatively affected by lower average selling prices in each of the international markets and as noted above, challenges in both the German and Japanese markets. Excluding the effect of exchange rates, international revenue decreased 3%. International operating cash flow decreased from $93 million to $86 million, or 8%. International cash flow margins decreased from 19% to 17% primarily due to a lower gross margin and a higher operating cost percentage. The lower gross margin mainly reflects higher product distribution costs including costs associated with the opening of a new warehouse in Japan. The higher operating cost percentage primarily reflects modest increases in commission, customer service and SG&A expenses. Excluding the effect of exchange rates, QVC's international operating cash flow decreased 10%.

QVC Germany and QVC Japan, as expected, continued to experience challenges. The German business was affected by productivity challenges across all categories. This contributed to a modest decline in the average sales price and a reduction in units shipped that resulted in an 11% local currency revenue decline. Germany also experienced a lower gross margin and a higher operating cost percentage. The lower gross margin percentage was due to a lower initial product margin and higher product distribution costs. QVC Japan experienced a 3% local currency revenue decline as a lower average sales price was partially offset by unit increases. The Japanese business continues to face a heightened regulatory focus on health and beauty product presentations which has had a direct impact on net revenue growth. QVC management in Japan continued to shift product away from the health and beauty category to the apparel and accessories, home and jewelry categories and experienced productivity gains in each of these categories to which it shifted product. On a more positive note, we continued to experience improved results in the UK which generated a 9% local currency revenue increase and even larger gains in operating cash flow.

QVC's outstanding bank debt was $3.90 billion at September 30, 2007.

Share Repurchases

During the third quarter, Liberty repurchased 14.9 million shares of Series A Liberty Interactive common stock at an average cost per share of $19.43 for total cash consideration of $289 million. Year to date through October 31, 2007, Liberty has repurchased 46.4 million shares at an average cost per share of $22.03 for total cash consideration of $1.021 billion. Since the creation of the Liberty Interactive tracking stock in May 2006, Liberty has repurchased 97.9 million shares at an average cost per share of $20.15 for total cash consideration of $1.975 billion. These repurchases represent approximately 14.0% of the shares outstanding at the time of creation of the Liberty Interactive tracking stock. Currently, Liberty has $1 billion remaining under its Liberty Interactive stock repurchase authorization.

The businesses and assets attributed to Liberty Interactive Group are engaged in, or are ownership interests in companies that are engaged in, sales of goods and services primarily through television programming and the Internet, and currently include its subsidiaries QVC, Provide Commerce, BUYSEASONS and Backcountry.com and its 24% interest in IAC/InterActiveCorp, 25% interest in Expedia and 20% interest in GSI Commerce. Liberty has identified QVC, Inc., a consolidated, wholly-owned subsidiary, as the principal operating segment of Liberty Interactive Group.

LIBERTY CAPITAL GROUP -- During the third quarter, Starz Entertainment experienced continued subscriber growth and reduced programming costs. These factors contributed to Starz Entertainment achieving 96% operating cash flow growth for the quarter.

Starz Entertainment, LLC

Starz Entertainment, LLC ("Starz Entertainment") revenue increased 11% to $282 million and operating cash flow increased 96% to $88 million.

The increase in revenue was the result of a $5 million increase due to a higher effective rate for Starz Entertainment's services and a $6 million increase resulting from growth in the average number of subscription units. Starz' average subscription units increased 7% during the quarter while Encore average subscription units increased 9%. Also, during the third quarter, Starz Entertainment entered into a new affiliation agreement with DirecTV which is retroactive to January 1, 2007, and extends through the end of 2007. The previous affiliation agreement with DirecTV expired June 30, 2006. Since expiration of the previous agreement, Starz Entertainment had recognized revenue from DirecTV based on cash payments from DirecTV. The new affiliation agreement provides for rates that are higher than those paid by DirecTV since June 30, 2006. Accordingly, in the third quarter of 2007, Starz Entertainment recognized revenue related to prior periods based on the new affiliation agreement.

The aforementioned increase in the effective rate was partially offset by two factors. Starz' affiliation agreements with two affiliates have expired and one of these affiliates continues to pay Starz at revised rates even though the contract has expired. Starz is booking revenue based on this affiliate's revised payments while they negotiate new contract terms. In addition, the sale of Adelphia Communication's systems to Comcast and Time Warner in 2006 has had a negative impact on the effective rate for Starz' services as the former Adelphia subscription units have been moved to the Comcast and Time Warner affiliation agreements which generally provide for lower effective rates.

Starz Entertainment's operating expenses declined 7% for the quarter. The decrease was primarily due to a 5% reduction in programming costs from $173 million in the third quarter of 2006 to $164 million in the same period in 2007. The decrease in programming costs was mainly due to a lower effective rate for the movie titles exhibited in 2007 partially offset by increased costs due to a higher percentage of first-run movie exhibitions relative to the number of library product exhibitions. Also contributing to the decrease in operating expenses was the reversal of an accrual in the amount of $7 million for music copyright fees in the third quarter of 2007 as a result of a settlement with a music copyright authority. Partially offsetting these decreases was a slight increase in SG&A expenses for the quarter due to higher sales and marketing expenses resulting from the timing of national marketing campaigns. Starz Entertainment currently expects its full year 2007 sales and marketing expenses to exceed those of 2006 due to expected increases in affiliate and consumer marketing costs.

"Starz Entertainment continued its momentum and, largely due to reduced programming costs, the business has experienced 59% year-to-date OCF growth," Starz Entertainment CEO Bob Clasen stated. "We are excited about our progress at Starz Media which is establishing itself as a quickly-developing, live action television production company. In the third quarter, Starz Media saw the start of production of four made-for-television movies and several TV series for various programming companies." Clasen added, "Overture will release its first production, Mad Money, over Martin Luther King weekend in 2008. In addition, principal photography has been completed for Overture's highly anticipated 2008 release Righteous Kill, starring Robert DeNiro and Al Pacino."

NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

This press release includes a presentation of operating cash flow, which is a non-GAAP financial measure, for each of the privately held entities of Liberty included herein together with a reconciliation of that non-GAAP measure to the privately held entity's operating income, determined under GAAP. Liberty defines operating cash flow as revenue less cost of sales, operating expenses, and selling, general and administrative expenses (excluding stock and other equity-based compensation). Operating cash flow, as defined by Liberty, excludes depreciation and amortization, stock and other equity-based compensation and restructuring and impairment charges that are included in the measurement of operating income pursuant to GAAP.

Liberty believes operating cash flow is an important indicator of the operational strength and performance of its businesses, including the ability to service debt and fund capital expenditures. In addition, this measure allows management to view operating results and perform analytical comparisons and benchmarking between businesses and identify strategies to improve performance. Because operating cash flow is used as a measure of operating performance, Liberty views operating income as the most directly comparable GAAP measure. Operating cash flow is not meant to replace or supercede operating income or any other GAAP measure, but rather to supplement such GAAP measures in order to present investors with the same information that Liberty's management considers in assessing the results of operations and performance of its assets. Please see the attached schedules for a reconciliation of consolidated segment operating cash flow to consolidated earnings from continuing operations before income taxes and minority interest (Schedule 1) and a reconciliation, for QVC and Starz Entertainment, of each identified entity's operating cash flow to its operating income calculated in accordance with GAAP (Schedule 2).
