Envoy Becomes ‘Certified National Vendor’ for DayBlink GPO

LOS ANGELES, CA, March 12, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Envoy Technologies Inc. (“Envoy”), a Blink Charging Co. entity and leading provider of electric car-sharing services, has announced its official certification as a vendor for DayBlink GPO, the largest hospitality buying consortium supporting luxury independents globally. The certification makes Envoy’s services available to the organization’s more than 1,100 independent luxury hotels around the world. Envoy’s inclusion in the GPO provides DayBlink properties with a premium mobility solutionthat meets growing guest demand for convenient, on-site electric vehicle access, enhancing the overall luxury travel experience.

Envoy's innovative on-site electric vehicle fleet enhances guest experiences by directly providing convenient, on-demand transportation options at luxury properties. Envoy's user-friendly mobile app empowers hotel guests to easily reserve and access electric vehicles, offering a seamless travel experience.

"We are proud to partner with DayBlink GPO, combining our commitment to innovative mobility solutions with DayBlink’s dedication to sourcing exceptional suppliers for its member hotels," said Aric Ohana, CEO & co-founder of Envoy. "This collaboration allows us to offer DayBlink GPO’s members, which includes five-star luxury independent hotels, a cutting-edge amenity that enhances guest satisfaction and provides a valuable transportation solution on-site."

Several DayBlink GPO properties have already implemented Envoy's services, including ESPACIO The Jewel of Waikiki, and Halekulani in Honolulu, Hawaii. These hotels now offer guests access to the Tesla Model 3, Tesla Model Y, and Model X vehicles, showcasing the seamless integration of luxury and advanced transportation options.

Envoy's all-electric fleet also contributes significantly to reducing the carbon footprint of participating hotels, aligning with DayBlink GPO's sustainability initiatives, while providing participating hotels with a modern transportation solution for their guests. The company's data-driven insights and analytics further empower hotels to optimize their guest transportation offerings.

"Envoy's electric vehicle sharing service perfectly complements our members' commitment to providing unique and sustainable luxury experiences," said Michael Wong, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of DayBlink GPO. "This relationship reinforces our dedication to innovation and environmental responsibility in the hospitality industry."
