HireRight Announces Expansion to Mexico City, Adding Further Support in Latin America

IRVINE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- HireRight, a leading provider of global employment background checks, drug testing, education verification, and electronic Form I-9 and E-Verify solutions, today announced it has opened an office in Mexico City to further support its growing customer base in Latin America ("LATAM"). HireRight's Mexico City office, which opened in early January 2018, offers additional support and resources for clients in the region, many of which are Fortune 500 companies in the financial, healthcare, manufacturing and telecom industries, and exemplifies HireRight's commitment to LATAM.

HireRight has experienced significant growth in the LATAM region as multi-national employers continue to adopt and expand global employment screening programs. Furthermore, recent legislation in Argentina, Brazil, and Mexico suggests that employers establish policies and procedures for employment screening to help mitigate risk during the candidate selection process, in an effort to prevent corporate corruption.

"We are excited to continue our global expansion with our new presence in Mexico City," said Jurgen Leijdekker, CEO at HireRight. "We look forward to further strengthening HireRight's connection with customers in Latin America and continuing to provide solutions which meet the demands of an evolving industry."

In addition to establishing a presence in Latin America, HireRight has continued to invest in its service delivery capabilities, including country-specific phone numbers, and a dedicated Spanish speaking customer service team.

"When doing business in Latin America, personal relationships built on trust are absolutely essential," said Ryan Christensen, director of Latin America at HireRight. "HireRight's investments throughout the region demonstrate our commitment to delivering the local support that our customers value and appreciate."
