The dividend is payable at 12:01 a.m. ET on June 28, 2025 ("Distribution Date") with Fortive shareholders receiving one share of Ralliant common stock for every three shares of Fortive common stock they hold on the Record Date. Fortive shareholders will receive cash in lieu of any fractional shares of our common stock that they would have received after application of this ratio.

An information statement containing details regarding the distribution of Ralliant common stock and Ralliant's business and management following the consummation of the distribution will be made available to Fortive shareholders prior to the Distribution Date. The preliminary information statement has been included as an exhibit to Ralliant's Registration Statement on Form 10 filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and describes Ralliant's business, certain risks of owning Ralliant common stock and other details regarding the separation and distribution. The distribution of Ralliant common stock remains subject to the satisfaction or waiver of customary conditions, as described in the information statement.

Shareholders who own Fortive common stock at the close of business on the Record Date will be entitled to receive Ralliant common stock distributed pursuant to the distribution and may trade this entitlement to shares of Ralliant common stock, without Fortive common stock they own, on the "when-issued" market.

Fortive expects that beginning June 25, 2025 there will be two markets in Fortive common stock on the NYSE: "regular-way" under the symbol "FTV" and "ex distribution" under the symbol "FTV WI." Prior to the Distribution Date, shares of Fortive common stock that trade in the "regular-way" market will trade with the right to receive shares of Ralliant common stock on the Distribution Date.
