COPT Amends Its Line of Credit and Term Loan

COLUMBIA, Md.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Corporate Office Properties Trust ("COPT") (NYSE: OFC), and its operating partnership, Corporate Office Properties, L.P. ("COPLP" and, together with COPT, the "Company"), announced that, effective May 6, 2015, the Company amended the terms of its $800 million line of credit (the "Credit Facility") to: (1) extend the maturity date from July 14, 2017, to May 6, 2019 plus two six-month extension options; and (2) lower the interest rate spread over 30-day LIBOR ("LIBOR") and the facility fee to current market. The interest rate and facility fee are subject to adjustment based upon COPLP's unsecured debt ratings.

Also effective May 6, 2015, the Company amended the terms of its $250 million term loan and repaid $50 million on its $150 million term loan (the "Term Loans"). The $250 million dollar Term Loan, that was previously scheduled to mature on February 14, 2017, was increased by $50 million, to $300 million, the maturity date was extended to May 6, 2020 and the spread to LIBOR was lowered to current market. The interest rates on the Term Loans are subject to adjustment based upon COPLP's unsecured debt ratings.

Company Information

The Company generally acquires, develops, manages and leases office and data center properties concentrated in large office parks primarily located near knowledge-based government demand drivers and/or in targeted markets or submarkets in the Greater Washington, DC/Baltimore region. As of March 31, 2015, the Company's consolidated portfolio consisted of 178 office properties totaling 17.7 million rentable square feet. COPT is an S&P MidCap 400 company.

Forward-Looking Information

This press release may contain "forward-looking" statements, as defined in Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that are based on the Company's current expectations, estimates and projections about future events and financial trends affecting the Company. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of words such as "may," "will," "should," "could," "believe," "anticipate," "expect," "estimate," "plan" or other comparable terminology. Forward-looking statements are inherently subject to risks and uncertainties, many of which the Company cannot predict with accuracy and some of which the Company might not even anticipate. Accordingly, the Company can give no assurance that these expectations, estimates and projections will be achieved. Future events and actual results may differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements.

Important factors that may affect these expectations, estimates, and projections include, but are not limited to:

- general economic and business conditions, which will, among other things, affect office property and data center demand and rents, tenant creditworthiness, interest rates, financing availability and property values;
- adverse changes in the real estate markets including, among other things, increased competition with other companies;
- governmental actions and initiatives, including risks associated with the impact of a prolonged government shutdown or budgetary reductions or impasses, such as a reduction in rental revenues, non-renewal of leases, and/or a curtailment of demand for additional space by the Company's strategic customers;
- the Company's ability to borrow on favorable terms;
- risks of real estate acquisition and development activities, including, among other things, risks that development projects may not be completed on schedule, that tenants may not take occupancy or pay rent or that development or operating costs may be greater than anticipated;
- risks of investing through joint venture structures, including risks that the Company's joint venture partners may not fulfill their financial obligations as investors or may take actions that are inconsistent with the Company's objectives;
- changes in the Company's plans for properties or views of market economic conditions or failure to obtain development rights, either of which could result in recognition of significant impairment losses;
- the Company's ability to satisfy and operate effectively under Federal income tax rules relating to real estate investment trusts and partnerships;
- the Company's ability to achieve projected results;
- the dilutive effects of issuing additional common shares; and
- environmental requirements.

The Company undertakes no obligation to update or supplement any forward-looking statements. For further information, please refer to the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, particularly the section entitled "Risk Factors" in Item 1A of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014.
