Boardwalktech Selected as KPMG Flashpoint Blockchain Finalist

CUPERTINO, CA, Aug. 15, 2018 /CNW/ - (TSXV:BWLK) – Boardwalktech Software Corp. ("Boardwalktech"), a leading enterprise blockchain software company, is pleased to announce that it has been selected as one of four KPMG 2018 Flashpoint Challenge Finalists – a program that recognizes influential businesses making advancements in technology. Boardwalktech was selected as a finalist from many applications as an innovative company who is changing the landscape with blockchain technology.

Innovation—such as blockchain technology—is driving change across all industries. KPMG LLP (KPMG) is proud to play a major role in helping organizations identify and leverage the leading new technologies to transform their businesses and build competitive advantage. Flashpoint is a competitive forum hosted by KPMG. It is designed to provide the key players in the blockchain arena with a platform to prove why their technology is a clear choice for the marketplace.

"The Flashpoint experience was engaging and exciting for everyone on both sides of the table," said Will Williams, National Managing Partner–Tax at KPMG and one of five members of the KPMG committee who evaluated the blockchain companies' pitches. "The real-time exchange of ideas and concepts and the chance to brainstorm with leaders in the emerging blockchain space left me confident that Flashpoint's collaboration model will lead to solutions that will better serve our clients."

"Boardwalktech is proud of its track record of bringing innovative solutions to the enterprise market and is delighted to be named as a KPMG Flashpoint finalist," said Andrew T. Duncan, President and CEO of Boardwalktech Software Corp. "Boardwalktech's patented positional data management and transaction chaining technology, first offered to market in 2007 as a digital ledger database and now referred to as a blockchain digital ledger, is uniquely capable of digitally transforming enterprise information exchanges through better collaboration, provenance, and trust helping companies drive greater efficiencies, create value, and manage risk."
