"We are well positioned to continue growing our sales and profits. Our retail network, product and marketing programs have been substantially strengthened. We increased advertising by 12.8% during the quarter as we launched our new artisan inspired products in September with a 116-page direct mail magazine and an aggressive advertising campaign in digital, print and other mediums. We plan to continue our strong marketing programs as we move forward." said Farooq Kathwari, Chairman and CEO. He further stated, "For the Company's retail division, total written order trends improved as the quarter progressed; while July decreased 8.9%, August increased 4.1% and September increased 5.2% over the respective prior year periods. As expected, our government contract business was strong during the quarter and we are pleased that our manufacturing, sourcing, and logistics are positioned to service increased sales across all our channels."

The retail division written orders increased 0.9% during the quarter in the Company's U.S.-based design centers. Its Canadian design centers experienced a decrease of 25.5% in written orders as consumers held off on purchases in light of economic uncertainty caused by the trade disputes.
