Dream Finders Homes Announces the Closing of its Acquisition of Alliant National Title Insurance Company, Inc.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Dream Finders Homes, Inc. (the “Company”, “Dream Finders” or “DFH”) (NYSE: DFH) announced today that it has closed on its acquisition of Alliant National Title Insurance Company, Inc. (“Alliant National”) and a related affiliate after the initial deal announcement on October 23, 2024. The acquisition was formally closed on April 18, 2025.

This acquisition represents a significant expansion of Dream Finders’ financial services capabilities, as Alliant National underwrites title insurance policies with more than 700 independent agents in 32 states and the District of Columbia.

Patrick Zalupski, Dream Finders’ Chairman and CEO, said, “We are pleased to close on this transaction and formally welcome David Sinclair and the Alliant National team to our Dream Finders Homes family. This partnership creates significant value for both Alliant National and Dream Finders as a result of further vertical integration and additional service offerings to our stakeholders. We are committed to investing towards the continued success of Alliant National’s platform and look forward to expanding our presence in the industry.”
