

Shapeways Reports Financial Results for the Third Quarter of 2021

- Shapeways to Host Webcast and Conference Call -

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Shapeways Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: SHPW) ("Shapeways" or the "Company"), a leader in the large and fast-growing digital manufacturing industry, announced its results for the third quarter ended September 30, 2021. On September 29, 2021, the Company completed its business combination with Galileo Acquisition Corp. and its common stock and warrants began trading on the NYSE on September 30, 2021 under the new ticker "SHPW" and "SHPW WS," respectively.

Third Quarter and Recent Highlights

- Revenue was $7.7 million in the third quarter of 2021 compared to $8.1 million in the third quarter of 2020.
- Gross profit was $3.7 million in the third quarter of 2021 compared to $3.7 million in the third quarter of 2020.
- Gross margins improved by 180 bps to 47.5% in the third quarter of 2021 compared to 45.7% in the third quarter of 2020 due to high value product focus, continued operational improvements, and further software utilization.
- In October, rebranded its purpose-built software platform, Otto™ Software-as-a-Service (SaaS), phase one of which is designed as a limited ordering service for traditional manufacturers seeking a simpler, faster, and more flexible path to 3D printing for industrial grade production.
- Strengthened the board with its appointment of a new independent director Leslie C. G. Campbell. Ms. Campbell has more than 30 years of multi-disciplinary experience in the technology, finance, software and information services industries.

"The third quarter was transformational for Shapeways as we completed our business combination with a strengthened balance sheet to support future growth," said Greg Kress, the Company's Chief Executive Officer. "With the closing of this transaction, we are accelerating our investments to drive new sales growth, including implementing new additive manufacturing technologies and scaling our business development capabilities. Our proprietary software offering continues to grow with the broader introduction of Otto™, and we are excited to offer our SaaS solution to traditional manufacturers seeking a more efficient process. The timing of closing the business combination resulted in the deferral of our planned investment spend, which is having an impact on our near-term expectations and the anticipated timing of the ramp in revenues associated with those investments. Moving forward, we believe we are well positioned to execute on our strategic objectives. While the timing of expectations has shifted, our conviction has not, and we have exciting opportunities as we look to add manufacturing capacity, capture more share of wallet with additional hardware and materials offerings, and continue to grow our proprietary software platform, and we believe we have now set the stage for future growth."

Non-GAAP Financial Information

In addition to Shapeways' results determined in accordance with GAAP, Shapeways believes that Adjusted EBITDA, a non-GAAP financial measure, is useful in evaluating our operational performance. Shapeways uses this non-GAAP financial information to evaluate our ongoing operations and for internal planning and forecasting purposes. Shapeways believes that this non-GAAP financial information, when taken collectively, may be helpful to investors in assessing our operating performance.

Shapeways defines Adjusted EBITDA as net income (loss) plus/minus debt forgiveness, interest expense, income taxes, depreciation and amortization expense, and change in fair value of warrant liabilities. In the future, Shapeways expects to report Adjusted EBITDA with an additional adjustment for stock based compensation expense.

Shapeways believes that the use of Adjusted EBITDA provides an additional tool for investors to use in evaluating ongoing operating results and trends because it eliminates the effect of financing and capital expenditures and provides investors with a means to compare its financial measures with those of comparable companies, which may present similar non-GAAP financial measures to investors. However, you should be aware that when evaluating Adjusted EBITDA Shapeways may incur future expenses similar to those excluded when calculating these measures. In addition, Shapeways' presentation of these measures should not be construed as an inference that our future results will be unaffected by unusual or non-recurring items.

Because of these limitations, Adjusted EBITDA should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for performance measures calculated in accordance with GAAP. Shapeways compensates for these limitations by relying primarily on our GAAP results and using Adjusted EBITDA on a supplemental basis. You should review the reconciliation of net income (loss) to Adjusted EBITDA below and not rely on any single financial measure to evaluate Shapeways' business.
