iCoreConnect Announces Acquisition of ClariCare Inc.

WINDERMERE, FL, June 14, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- via NEWMEDIAWIRE -- iCoreConnect Inc. (OTC: ICCT) a publicly-traded cloud-based software and technology company providing secure communication and healthcare practice management, announces its acquisition of the assets of ClariCare Inc. ClariCare is a provider of cloud-based software that helps dental offices optimize and manage the most critical functions in the practice.

“The ClariCare products will complement iCoreConnect’s growing suite of exceptional cloud-based tools for healthcare professionals,” explains iCoreConnect President and CEO Robert McDermott. “For example, the software reduces the time needed for staff to get up-to-speed each morning and better prepares them for the day. It also gives practitioners a faster, clearer and more accessible path to patients who need to schedule additional treatments or procedures. Getting those patients back in the door is critical for the growth of their dental practice.”

ClariCare’s co-founder, Patrick Malloy, will join the iCoreConnect team as a division president. “I feel there is tremendous opportunity for dental practices to innovate,” says Malloy. “We’re providing modern, elegant and easy to use solutions to an industry now ready to embrace enterprise solutions to help practices grow, maximize revenue potential, and delight patients.”

McDermott adds “iCoreConnect prides itself on its suite of cloud-based services that improve productivity for dental and healthcare practices. We believe our customers will appreciate this most recent expansion of those capabilities.”
