Arbe Appoints Assaf Pereg, CPA, as Chief Financial Officer

TEL AVIV, Israel, Aug. 6, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- Arbe Robotics Ltd. (Nasdaq: ARBE) (TASE: ARBE), a global leader in ultra-high-resolution radar solutions, today announced the appointment of Assaf Pereg, CPA, as the incoming Chief Financial Officer, effective August 30, 2026. Mr. Pereg succeeds Karine Pinto-Flomenboim, who will be departing the Company.

Assaf Pereg brings close to two decades of financial leadership experience with both public and private technology companies in Israel and internationally. He joins Arbe from Ibex Medical Analytics Ltd, where he served as SVP Finance. Prior to that, Mr. Pereg served as the Global VP Finance of Nano Dimension Ltd., where he led the global finance organization. Previously, he served as Chief Financial Officer of Aquarius Engines Ltd., Become Technological Solutions Ltd., and CyberInt Technologies Ltd., and held senior finance roles at Top Image Systems Ltd. and Radcom Ltd.

He began his career at PricewaterhouseCoopers. Mr. Pereg is a Certified Public Accountant (Israel) and holds an MBA in financial management and a B.A. in accounting and economics from Tel Aviv University.

Ram Machness, CEO of Arbe, commented, "We are delighted to welcome Assaf to Arbe's management team. He joins at a pivotal point for the Company, as we move from development into scaled production and extend our radar technology into new markets beyond automotive. Assaf brings deep, hands-on financial experience with publicly listed companies, and that experience will be valuable as we continue to execute on our growth strategy. Finally, I would like to thank Karine for her valuable contribution to Arbe over the years and great partnership and wish her every success in her future endeavors."

Assaf Pereg, incoming CFO of Arbe, added, "I am excited to be joining Arbe to lead its next phase of growth. Arbe has built a differentiated radar technology with significant potential, and is now at the stage where that technology is translating into commercial programs and growing revenue. I look forward to joining the Arbe team as we realize that potential."

About Arbe

Arbe (NASDAQ: ARBE), a global leader in ultra-high-resolution radar solutions, is redefining radar as a core sensing platform for next-generation mobility and advanced sensing applications. Arbe's complete radar technology stack includes proprietary automotive-grade RF transmitter and receiver chips, a high-definition radar processing chip, the Phoenix radar system with 2,304 virtual channels, and advanced AI algorithms that transform radar data into a perception-ready layer.
