Weave Wins Fourth Consecutive Dental Product Shopper Readers Choice Award for Patient Communication and Dental Analytics

Dental Product Shopper readers vote Weave as the best Patient Communication software for the fourth year in a row

LEHI, Utah--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Weave (NYSE: WEAV), a leading all-in-one customer experience software and payments platform, has won its fourth consecutive Dental Product Shopper Readers' Choice Award for Patient Communication software and Dental Analytic software.

Dental Product Shopper is a renowned dental industry publication whose readers include dental professionals across the United States. The Readers' Choice Awards are voted on by dental professionals and recognize companies that provide products and services that help improve dental practices.

"We're thrilled to receive our fourth Dental Product Shopper Readers Choice Award," stated Branden Neish, Chief Product and Technology Officer at Weave. "We've worked hard to build a platform that businesses can truly customize and use in a way that best fits their needs, as well as the needs of their patients, and it's an honor to receive this continued recognition from dental professionals."

Weave offers a wide range of solutions, which improve the overall dental practice patient experience. Businesses can customize and streamline patient interactions through the platform using multiple forms of communication including two-way texting, VoIP, email, and reviews. With Weave, dental practices have access to a variety of analytics solutions that give insight into current processes and provide actionable data that can help improve patient communications.

Weave's software has won multiple awards for patient communication over the last year. Recently, Weave was named a leader in G2's 2024 Summer Report. Visit getweave.com/awards to learn more.
