IRVING, Texas--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Media are invited to participate in a conference call on ExxonMobil's 2012 Outlook for Energy at 10 a.m. EST Thursday, December 8, 2011.

Presenting the Outlook will be William Colton, vice president, Corporate Strategic Planning, and Kenneth Cohen, vice president, Public and Government Affairs. David Pumphrey, deputy director and senior fellow of the Energy and National Security Program at the Center for Strategic & International Studies, will moderate the session. The presentation will be followed by time for questions and discussion.

The presentation slides will be available at www.exxonmobil.com/energyoutlookpresentation. Media can ask questions by phoning 888-554-1417 (Domestic) or 719-325-2432 (International). Please reference confirmation code 2946926. You should begin this procedure at least 10-15 minutes prior to the start of the call. The call will begin at 10 a.m. EST, 9 a.m. CST and is scheduled to last approximately one hour.

ExxonMobil's Outlook for Energy is a comprehensive look at long-term trends in energy demand, supply, emissions and technology. The report, updated each year, is built upon detailed analysis of data from about 100 countries, incorporating publicly available information as well as in-house expertise. ExxonMobil uses the Outlook to guide long-term investment decisions.

ExxonMobil, the largest publicly traded international oil and gas company, uses technology and innovation to help meet the world's growing energy needs. ExxonMobil holds an industry-leading inventory of resources, is the largest refiner and marketer of petroleum products, and its chemical company is one of the largest in the world.
