Antero Resources Announces Appointment of Joyce E. McConnell to the Board of Directors

DENVER, Feb. 20, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Antero Resources Corporation (NYSE: AR) ("Antero" or the "Company") today announced that Joyce E. McConnell has been appointed to its board of directors (the "Board"), as a Class II director, effective as of February 20, 2018. Ms. McConnell is an independent director under the director independence standards set forth in the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the applicable listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange.

Ms. McConnell, a nationally recognized scholar and national and West Virginia leader, has been the Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs at West Virginia University since 2014. She joined the West Virginia University College of Law faculty in 1995, became a full professor in 1998, and the Thomas R. Goodwin Professor of Law in 2002. She served two terms as the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and became the Dean of the College of Law in 2008. McConnell is also Chair of the West Virginia Chapter of The Nature Conservancy and a member of the NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions.

Paul M. Rady, Chairman and CEO of Antero commented, "As part of our ongoing process that Antero Resources has undertaken over the past few months to identify a director that would further strengthen our Board's breadth of talent and experience, we are very excited to welcome Joyce McConnell to the Board of Directors of Antero. Joyce's broad legal and management experience and deep local ties to the West Virginia community in which we operate will be a valuable asset to Antero and our shareholders. Adding another independent director to the Board of Directors with Joyce's background further strengthens our commitment to good corporate governance at Antero."

"I am thrilled to join the Board of Antero, a great company with a forward-thinking management team and a bright future in West Virginia and Ohio. Antero's momentum, footprint and operational capabilities present a tremendous opportunity. I am excited to represent shareholders and work with the Board to oversee the execution of the company's business strategy," said McConnell.

Before joining the Company, McConnell served as President of the West Virginia Bar Association and served with former U.S. Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor on former West Virginia Governor Joe Manchin's Judicial Reform Commission. Prior to that, Ms. McConnell was a Clinical Fellow at The Georgetown University Law Center in Washington, D.C.

Ms. McConnell's appointment fills a previous vacancy on the Board and returns its size to nine directors, seven of whom are independent directors. Ms. McConnell will be a member of the Board's Nominating & Governance Committee.
