

COSHOCTON WORKS FACT SHEET

Coshocton Works is in Coshocton, Ohio, with stainless finishing operations contained in 570,000 square feet of floor space. Following several major expansion programs, Coshocton Works is one of the nation's leading producers of superior quality flat-rolled stainless steel.

Facility Facts

|                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|----------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Plant Leadership                | Troy Balo                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Union Leadership                | Kurt Knicely, United Auto Workers (UAW)                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Products                        | Flat-rolled stainless steels, including austenitic (300 & 200-series), ferritic (400-series), martensitic, and precipitation hardening (PH) stainless steel grades.                                                                                      |
| Markets Served                  | Aerospace, automotive, appliance, distribution and medical                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Principal Production Facilities | Two Sendzimer mills and two Z-high mills for cold reduction, four annealing and pickling lines, bell annealing furnaces, two bright annealing lines, two temper mills, and other processing equipment, including temper rolling, slitting and packaging. |
| Certifications                  | IATF 16949:2016 Certificate, ISO 9001:2015 Certificate, ISO 14001:2015 Certificate, AS9100 Aerospace Quality Standard. The plant is also a recipient of several customer quality and service awards.                                                     |

About Cleveland-Cliffs

Cleveland-Cliffs is a leading North America-based steel producer with focus on value-added sheet products, particularly for the automotive industry. The Company is vertically integrated from mined raw materials, direct reduced iron, and ferrous scrap to primary steelmaking and downstream finishing, stamping, tooling, and tubing. The Company is headquartered in Cleveland, OH with mining, steel and downstream manufacturing operations located across the U.S. and Canada. For more information, visit www.clevelandcliffs.com.

Cleveland-Cliffs Coshocton Works

17400 State Route 16
Coshocton, OH 43812
Telephone: 740.829.2341
www.clevelandcliffs.com