Vuzix To Host Additional Live Webinars That Demonstrate Business Continuity, Telemedicine and Tele-Training

Vuzix M400 Smart Glasses functionality will be demonstrated using Brochesia, Ubimax Frontline, Zerentia and Zoom

ROCHESTER, N.Y., March 31, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Vuzix® Corporation (NASDAQ: VUZI), ("Vuzix" or, the "Company"), a leading supplier of Smart Glasses and Augmented Reality (AR) technology and products, today announced that it will host an additional series of live webinars on Zoom to demonstrate the broad support functionality of its M400 Smart Glasses across multiple platforms.

Many businesses and educational institutions today are being impacted by travel restrictions and office or school closings. Vuzix offers a line of top-rated Smart Glasses for hands-free video conferencing with connector applications to services such as Zoom and Skype for Business, as well as more advanced enterprise remote support applications including Brochesia, Librestream Onsite, LiveOn, Ubimax Frontline, Zerentia and Vuzix Remote Assist (VRA). With industry-leading Vuzix Smart Glasses, enterprise workers can be remotely monitored and assisted by experts to perform maintenance, inspection, installation, and training without the need for unnecessary travel. For telemedicine, Vuzix Smart Glasses can allow doctors and nurses to record medical procedures for training, provide a hands-free environment in operating rooms and conduct virtual examinations. The IP67-rated Vuzix M400 Smart Glasses support numerous universal mounting options that make them easy to use and comfortable to wear in most any setting, including in the warehouse, on the shop floor, in the operating room, on the manufacturing line or outdoors.

Each day's webinar will last 60 minutes and cover a different topic with commentary and product demonstrations. The webinar details are as follows:
