Vuzix Expands HIPAA Compliant Healthcare Offerings with the Addition of Telepresenz from CARE4D for the M400 Smart Glasses

Telepresenz from Care4D offers hands-free augmented reality functionality for healthcare and enterprise professionals

ROCHESTER, N.Y., Aug. 13, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Vuzix® Corporation (NASDAQ: VUZI), ("Vuzix" or, the "Company"), a leading supplier of Smart Glasses and Augmented Reality (AR) technology and products, announced today that Vuzix' M400 Smart Glasses are now supported by CARE4D's Telepresenz®, a HIPAA compliant augmented reality telepresence solution that connects remote users to mentors, experts, or supervisors across healthcare and industry.

Telepresenz® enables medical professionals or enterprise technicians to connect to a remote expert using the Vuzix Smart Glasses to securely stream to a remote expert. The Telepresenz® platform enables real-time, two-way audio-video communication between a base station expert and remote users who could be in any location, anywhere in the world. In addition to remote support, the Telepresenz® platform also provides access to procedures and workflows to help enterprise customers with step-by-step instructions or guided instructions in the field.

"We at CARE4D are excited to partner with Vuzix, the leading supplier of Smart AR Glasses. Telepresenz® solution and the Vuzix M400 Glasses together make an attractive and complete offering for the end customer," said Ritesh Tolia, Co-Founder and Chief Revenue Officer at CARE4D.

"We are pleased to have the support of CARE4D as another HIPAA compliant software partner that can deliver augmented intelligence to frontline healthcare workers or field technicians performing inspections or remote maintenance," said Paul Travers, President and Chief Executive Officer at Vuzix.
