Weave's combined success within the market presence and satisfaction sections across the Optometry Software category further demonstrates the trust Weave's optometry customers have in them to help deliver the highest quality support for their patients.

The G2 community ranked Weave as a

Leader in several categories in their 2022 Fall reports, including:

- Patient Engagement
- Patient Relationship Management
- HIPAA Compliant Messaging
- Dental Practice Management
- Optometry Software

"Weave's extensive record as a product leader in both our verticals and our broad competitive space is only made more powerful by the fact real customer reviews power this ranking," says Brett White, Interim CEO of Weave. "Customer experience is a top priority at Weave and our continual recognition as a Leader in these core categories is further proof we are delivering solutions and experiences our customers love."

The above rankings propelled Weave to the #1 position in the overall G2 Fall 2022 Grid Report for Dental Practice Management Software as well. As more and more small healthcare businesses turn to technology to assist them with their day-to-day activities, platforms like Weave are becoming an integral part of an organization's success.
