TIAA-CREF Trust Company, FSB Adopts SEI Wealth Platform(SM)

Strategic Partnership Leverages SEI Technology and Services to Expand Long-Term Wealth Management Capabilities

OAKS, Pa., May 10, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- SEI (NASDAQ:SEIC) announced today that TIAA-CREF Trust Company, FSB will adopt the SEI Wealth Platform SM (the Platform) as part of the firm's commitment to deliver a seamless client and employee wealth management experience. The Platform is a fully-integrated, single-infrastructure wealth management technology solution developed to support client relationship management, including front-, middle-, and back-office services. This news was first announced during SEI's first-quarter 2017 earnings call.

"TIAA-CREF Trust Company's implementation of the SEI Wealth Platform reinforces the value of adopting a fully-integrated infrastructure to best serve future prospects, participants, and employees," said Al Chiaradonna, Senior Vice President, SEI Wealth Platform, North America Private Banking. "We look forward to helping them drive efficiency, scale, and transparency through strategic integration."

TIAA-CREF Trust Company, FSB will utilize the SEI Wealth Platform to offer an efficient, web-based solution that will help better manage risk, enhance business productivity, and bring client and employee experience to a new level.

"We recognize the need to employ a cutting-edge technological infrastructure that meets present and future needs. Through a fully-integrated and modernized wealth management solution, we can train new employees faster and increase the time devoted to servicing participants by eliminating administrative responsibilities through automation," said Kathie Andrade, Chief Executive Officer, Retail Financial Services, TIAA. "We look forward to working alongside SEI to deliver new opportunities to our employees and the best possible client experience."

TIAA-CREF Trust Company has been an SEI client since 2001 and plans to convert their existing book of business, currently on SEI's TRUST 3000 solution, to the SEI Wealth Platform in 2018. Gaining market momentum since its U.S. launch in 2013, the SEI Wealth Platform now supports 11 private banking firms and their clients, and has another six clients, including TIAA-CREF Trust Company, in various stages of implementation. For more information, please visit seic.com/wealthplatform.

“We have enjoyed a great relationship with SEI during the past 16 years, and we look forward to continuing to build and strengthen it as we transition to the new platform. This is a key initiative for us as we continue to provide important services for clients and participants,” said Stephanie Adams, Vice President, Head of Trust Services, TIAA-CREF Trust Company, FSB.
